Garden, Orchard, and Farm Memoranda.

JANUARY.

FLOWER GARDEN.—The same precaution must be taken to keep the ground clean from weeds. Plants of roses, shrubs, etc., that have been grown in pots, may be planted out carefully, with a liberal supply of water. This month you can sow seeds of primula, pansies, cineraria, in well-prepared seed pans or boxes, well shaded. In the open, plant balsams, coxcombs, amaranthus, zinnia, coleus, helichrysium, marigold, etc. Keep your plants—such as carnations, bouvardias, dahlia, etc.—well staked. Coleus are now looking grand in their vast array of gorgeous color—in hotter parts, in the open; in colder districts, of course, they will be in the bush house. Glass houses and bush houses should now be looking their best, with caladiums, begonias, gloxinia, etc. Re-pot and plant ferns in good bush soil; they require plenty of moisture, shade, and good drainage, also plenty of light, but not the hot sun. Charcoal is a splendid acquisition to the pot soil, for all kinds of ferns.

ORCHARD.—Care must be taken to keep the ground open, forked up, and free from weeds. Keep grape vines tied up so that the wind does not damage the foliage; remove all suckers and useless growth. Where the fruit on tree hangs too thick, thin them out.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Though the first month in the calendar (not in the garden), this month is one in which growing vegetables need more attention than planting or sowing. Keep all weed-growth in check by stirring the soil after heavy rain. Dig and leave the ground rough after each crop is removed, so that by exposure to sun and air its texture is improved. A few sweet potato vines may still be planted, as they prolong the season, being available when the earlier are unfit for table use. In sowing such seeds as may be needed for early winter use, select, if possible, a south-west aspect, as the sun's rays are less powerful than on any other. Varieties of cabbage, cauliflower, celery, and French or butter beans may be sown, care being needed with shade and water for such early work. Sow in small beds, over which an old sack or other similar material can be fastened about a yard from the ground, thus acting as a shade from the sun and breaking the force of heavy rain, each of which is detrimental to the young plants. A dusting with lime is very helpful to keep insect pests in check, or an ounce of tobacco leaf dried, then boiled in one pint of water, the extract being added to the watering can about twice a week, care being taken not to use the dressing, in either case, too strong.

THE FARM.—Maize sown last month will need the scarifier at work to keep the soil free from weeds, and to encourage growth. Sowings may still be made, though it is not wise to sow largely so late in the season. This month should be preparatory to work later on, and every inch available should be ploughed, and left with a rough and uneven surface. By this means moisture is caused to descend deeper, and thus forms a reserve for future needs, while the surface is prepared by action of sun and air for a good seed bed next month. Crops should now be sown with an object of providing winter feed or green manure, and such as sorghum, cow peas, vetches, Cape barley, panicum, teosinte, or rye may be sown. A small breadth of potatoes may be planted. They should be whole seed, about the size of an egg, and well sprouted, and in districts subject to heavy rains or on heavy land, should be planted on the ridge as shallow as possible, say three inches deep. Where cabbages are largely grown a bed now sown with Succession or Drumhead, and carefully guarded, will pay well when the cows are short of feed in July. It must be understood that all seeds sown this month have to contend against abnormal heat, heavy rains, and numerous insects and fungoid pests, and those who plant or sow must take every care to as far as possible guard from disaster. Paspalum dilatatum, Rhodes grass, rye grass, or better than all, Phalaris comutata may be sown. If the latter has not yet been given a trial it should be, as our dairy farmers have yet to discover its value as a green food for winter use, it being more succulent and a stronger grower than prairie.

Memoranda.

FEBRUARY.

FLOWER GARDEN.—A great deal has to be done this month in preparing boxes for flower seeds, and the flower beds by cleansing from all weeds, manuring, and digging the ground. Of course, the time varies in different parts of the States as to sowing flower seeds. For instance, in Queensland you may commence in February, with the exception of the colder parts, such as the Downs, which will be somewhat later. But to ensure a good display of bloom, it is well to start early, provided you sow in seed boxes, and keep them shaded and well watered. Begin with phlox, candytuft, dianthus, carnations, antirrhinum, browallia, cornflower, globe amaranthus, scabiosa, mignonette, pansy, Canterbury bells, schizanthus, eschscholtzia, forget-me-not, lupins, marigold, larkspur, sweet pea, sweet sultan, marguerites, cineraria, petunia, gloxinia, and many others. When the plants are about two inches high, transfer them to the bed; if possible, in cloudy or showery weather. Thin out dahlias, and tie up; look over your roses, removing all unnecessary wood, cleansing bark from scale, digging between them, and well mulching with manure. Look over pot plants, stirring up and loosening the soil, and adding little bone dust, or watering with liquid manure.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—The vegetable garden in this month should be the centre of activity on every favourable opportunity, much of the work being dependent on weather conditions, and as it is usually wet and hot, little can be done. In sowing early, care is needed in selection of light, well-drained soil, a gentle slope to the south-east or south is most suitable. If a dry spell occurs, use the opportunity to stir all ground dug last month, and remove all crops that have ceased to be profitable, digging the ground and leaving it cloddy where it is inclined to be tenacious, to prevent it becoming too consolidated if rain falls heavily. The time of sowing should be dependent far more on weather conditions than monthly dates, as the same conditions govern as in last month, though more scope for sowing with greater success as the month nears its end will be experienced. Repeat the sowings made last month, and, in addition, sow peas, carrots, turnips, lettuce, radish, beetroot, mustard cress, and other saladings; also cucumbers, either layered or a few seeds sown for late crop. Potatoes may be safely planted on ridges or light soils, the seeds being round and well-started, as in the crop now planted cut seed is apt to rot either in dry or wet weather. Gather all vegetables as soon as they mature, as they quickly deteriorate at this season. Any seeds sown last month should be carefully transplanted, doing this work in the afternoon if possible, and leaving the young plants exposed to the sun as little as may be.

FARM.—Maize sown last July and August should now be ready to harvest, and as soon as it is cleared the land should be ploughed, the stalks and weeds being turned under by a disc plough. In the coastal districts this land may, as soon as prepared, be sown with Cape barley, Kaffir corn, sorghum, tares, or any tropical or sub-tropical plant, for making ensilage in May or June, and where dairying is one of the chief means of livelihood, and ensilage is not in favour, sow Algerian oats on all land as the maize is cleared; a few bushel of seed amply repays in winter feed for the cows; or in the wheat-growing districts, it may profitably be ploughed and left for a month, then cross-ploughed, and again left until wheat sowing, when, after rain, the wheat may be drilled, and the seed harrowed in will germinate and be in fine form to withstand drought. During this month potatoes may be planted on all land prepared during last month, but, in the majority of soils, the latent moisture is prone to cause the tubers to develop disease, but where ground has been well prepared this danger is minimised. This is a good time to plant paspalum dilatatum or Rhodes grass, as each strikes root readily during moist weather, and the latter is soon seen to assert its ascendancy and will soon become a great favourite with dairymen, as it does not grow so fibrous as paspalum, but keeps rooting and throwing up fresh masses of succulent herbage. A small breadth of mangel wurzel or cabbage may be sown, and will be found very useful feed for cows or pigs, when grass is scarce and dry.

Memoranda

Memoranda.

MARCH.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Now we can sow a general variety of all kinds of flower seeds for the winter blooming. Snapdragon, calliopsis, galliardia, phlox, carnation, aster (though the aster grows and blooms in the winter, spring is the best time for planting, and better results are obtained), marigold, schizanthus, hunnamannia, eschscholtzia, marguerites, ranunculus, anemones, leptosyne, marvel of Peru, lupins, mignonette, candytuft, pansy, poppy (amongst poppies the Shirley is a very pretty delicate variety, but better still is the beautiful Iceland poppy), larkspur, forget-me-not (Cape and English), rhodanthe, acroclinium, lobelia, and many others. As said before, sow all seeds in boxes of soft, well-prepared soil. Shade with old newspaper or any thing suitable, but paper is the best. As soon as the seedlings appear, take off the paper, and keep well moist in planting out. Do it carefully, taking as much soil with the roots as possible, and well water if there be no rain. All autumn flowering shrubs have a gay appearance now. Look over your garden walks and borders to keep weeds from seeding. Fork in the mulching, and keep the hoe going between plants. Edging and hedges should be clipped. Tie up and stake all plants needing it. Bulbs may now be put in—hyacinth, tulips, snowflakes, freesias, daffodils, anemone, sparaxis, iris, lilliums, alliums, jonquils, tritonas, narcissus, montretia, scillas, tuberoses, watsonia, etc.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—This is one of the most important months in the vegetable garden, and it is now that the benefit is found from the preparatory work of the two preceding months in enabling seeds to be sown at the most favourable time on well prepared ground. In sowing, a few tropical and sub-tropical seeds may be sown as a chance crop, though an early frost will spoil such, and it is wiser to devote attention to the cultivation of such as mature in cooler latitudes. The main sowing for winter crops of cauliflower, cabbage, turnips, lettuce, radish, carrots, beetroot, French, runner, and broad beans, parsnips, kohlrabi, saladings, such as endive, eschallots, white mustard and cress, with sweet and pot herbs, including thyme, sage, parsley, marjoram, fennel, etc. In sowing, as in all operations in the garden or on the farm, it is wise to have a plan of operations, it being very important to distinguish whether it is intended to sow in the place it is expected the crop should mature, or with the object of transplanting to another place. All the cabbage tribe are better for being transplanted, and it may be taken as a general rule that it is triser to sow such in small seed beds, in rows about six inches apart, and that any plant having fibrous roots benefits by transplanting. Tap-rooted vegetables, such as carrots, parsnips, and beetroot may be transplanted, but are better sown in rows fifteen inches apart to remain, as transplanting causes them to throw out fibres, and they thus do not grow clear and straight, and lose much of their flavcur. A few cucumbers and tomatoes may be sown, but layers of each are better. This can be done by taking healthy leads, and just placing a little mould over them, pegging down to ensure their rooting.

FARM.—In the coastal districts the early corn will be ready to harvest, and the sooner it is garnered the sooner can the ground again be put to profit; if the land is ploughed and sown with Algerian oats or rye and cocksfoot, there will be a good and certain feed for the cows in July and August, when they can be allowed to run to seed and mown in October for a valuable and profitable reserve of horse or cattle food. On all lands devoted to potato growing the main winter crop should be planted. Previous cultivation will make this work easy, but sooner delay planting for a few days than try to force the seed into unkind or only partly-cultivated soil. There is no crop pays better for good tillage than the English potato. Lucerne may be sown this month, but only in gro and that is in perfect tilth. Although weeds are growing feeble, and may not gain the ascendancy, they will gain a foothold that will assert itself in the following spring, and it will be found in most districts that June and July sown forms better and stronger plants with less admixture of other growth. This is better drilled with a small seed-drill, where large areas are put in, ten to twelve pounds of seed to the acre; but where only small plots are put in, it is easiest to sow from fifteen to twenty pounds broadcast, and harrow in, leaving the surface as fine and even as possible. Grass seeds, such as prairie, Rhodes, paspalum, or Phalaris comutata, and a few pounds of white or Dutch clover, will not be found amiss in the pastures. Oats, barley, or wheat may now be planted in some districts, whilst the main crop of tares, carrots, mangels, and swede turnips should be sown as soon as weather conditions ensure a fair germination. In growing the two latter it is well to have a seed bed of each, so that attention can be given to watering in their early growth, and they can be easily transplanted after a shower, and thus insure a good early growth. This is the time to think about food for the cattle before the grass comes next spring, and an acre or two of cabbage costs but little, and grows a large amount of valuable feed.

Memoranda.

APRIL.

FLOWER GARDEN.—The rose, justly called the Queen of Flowers, is, on all kinds of soil, the most satisfactory of garden plants in Queensland. The month of April is the most suitable for the laying down of a rose garden. For the amateur gardener the most satisfactory method of growing roses is from either worked or rooted roses, such as are procurable at a small price from any florist. The first step should be the laying out of the rose bed. The bed should be well drained, with drain pipes if practicable, and should be trenched to a depth of 18 inches. On the arrival of the plants, if not in pots, they should be carefully unpacked in a shady place and water sprinkled over them, and then wrapped in a wet bag while being planted. Should the plants appear shrivelled, open a trench in the ground and lay them flat in the bottom; cover them entirely (roots and branches), with six inches of soil and give them a good soaking with water. After allowing them to remain under ground for two or three days, dig them up and plant as directed. Plants in pots may be at once transferred to the ground and need less care. To plant the roses, dig holes about fifteen inches square, and sufficiently deep to bring the bud (i.e., lower branches) about one-and-a-half to two inches under the general level of the ground. Carefully separate and spread out the roots all round, giving them a downward tendency, then fill in about three inches of soil, and tread down as firmly as possible. Failure often occurs from loose planting. Fill in again with more soil, having the plant in a basin about two feet across and three inches deep, with a little mound of soil around the stem in the centre. Fill up this basin with stable manure, and give the plant about three gallons of water all over the manure mulching. Should the weather continue dry, water again in a week's time, and afterwards fortnightly, until the plants are established. Clean water should always be used to newly planted roses; soapy water will often prove fatal. Never manure the roots when planting, but mulching with manure round the roots has the effect of keeping the soil moist, preventing the ground caking and cracking, and allowing the water to soak in rapidly. After the roses have been planted for twelve months, they should be ready for pruning, which should be done as follows:—Begin by cutting out all dead and small or weak wood with a sharp knife. Afterwards cut back the shoots to a good eye. Should the plants have thrown up any strong new shoots during the summer (often misnamed water shoots) carefully preserve one or two of them, and if they are at all crowded out by old wood, cut the old wood clean away. Hybrid Perpetual roses require hard pruning; Tea roses light pruning; and Hybrid Teas a medium pruning. As regards the manuring of roses, horse manure is particularly suitable for incorporation with heavy or clay soils, and for mulching (it may be used fresh in both cases). Cow manure is more suitable for light, loamy, and sandy soils, but it should be allowed to rot in a heap for a month or two before being used. The following twenty roses will be found very suitable for the Queensland climate:—Comtesse de la Barthe, or Maiden Blush, Maman Cochet, White Maman Cochet, Marie Van Houtte, Kaiserin Augusta Victoria (climber), Madame de Watteville, Therese Levet, White Pearl, Madame Lambard, La France, Medea, Celine Forestier (climber), Lamarque (climber), Reine Marie Henriette (climber), Perle des Jardins (climber), Francesca Kruger, Christine de Noue, The Bride, Homer, Safrano, but there are many others being introduced annually which are just as suitable.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Much depends this month upon the work done or left undone last, as arrears of sowing or planting should be brought up quickly. Such cabbages, cauliflowers, etc., as are ready to transplant should be moved as early as weather and growth permit, it being better to transplant before the plant is stunted by drought or grows leggy by too much moisture; two feet apart. In rows two feet six inches asunder is a good distance. Keep French beans, butter beans, etc., from carrying seed pods, and they will continue to yield, or if they have ceased to be profitable, clear them off, and use the ground for cauliflower or cabbage. Thin out carrots, beets, parsnips, and keep the soil well stirred between the rows. A few onions may now be sown for transplanting in June, and another sowing of saladings should be made. In localities where frost is not much in evidence, peas and French beans may be sown, and will repay any little attention they may require. Celery that has been carefully tended should now be ready for earthing up, care being needed to prevent the earth falling into the leaves. This can be done by gathering the leaves in one hand, and placing the soil around with the other.

FARM.—This is a busy month to the maize-grower, and he should get in all crops as they are fit to garner, and again plough the land for future crops, for it is the essence of bad farming to allow land to lie idle. The main crop of potatoes planted in February or March will now be in full growth, and care should be exercised in their cultivation. It is better to earth them up twice than to bury the young tubers by one heavy earthing, the gentle stirring of the soil being a great help to their growth. Sowing of oats, rye, vetches, mangels, and swede turnips may be made, and those sown last month thinned out, and transplanted in well-prepared soil. Those engaged in cotton growing will now find the pods bursting, and picking must be attended to, care being needed to gather all lint dry, as any picked damp will be damaged. In sowing wheat thus early less seed should be sown, as it will tiller more freely than later sown, and the quantity must be increased in May, and again in June.

MAY.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Clean away all weeds and well fork up ground between rose bushes and shrubs already planted. Still continue to sow seeds of annuals for a good spring blooming, such as phlox, dianthus, carnations, snapdragon, linum, larkspur, echscholtzia, gaillardia, calliopsis, candytuft, mignonette, salpiglossis, summer chrysanthemum, cornflower, sweet pea, petunia, scabiosa, schizanthus, godetia, clarkia elegans, and many other varieties. Pansy seed may still be sown. It is often asked, what can I plant for a border flower? Here are a few—Pyrethrum (golden feather)—its beautiful bright yellow foliage lends an attraction to the flower garden; lobelia, with its pretty green leaf and pale and dark blue flowers, give a beautiful effect; sweet alyssum, a flower after the candytuft type, which gives a profusion of white flowers; Virginian stock, with a great show of pink and white flowers, is very effective. For plants to flower in pots, there is the primula, cineraria, etc.; but one that is very little trouble, is the cupid sweet pea, in pink and white. It grows a few inches high. Plant several peas in a five or seven-inch pot, with good soil. Place the pot in the open, as the bushhouse tends to draw them up too weak. Keep them well watered, and we feel sure you will be pleased with the result. All pot plants should have the soil well stirred up round the plant and given a sprinkle of bone dust. Mix this well in with the soil; it will invigorate the plant, and give a better colour to the foliage; also to water with liquid manure is very beneficial, horse or cow manure will do, the latter being the best. Put the manure in a kerosine tin, or anything else suitable, and fill up with water; use this about twice a week. Do not allow scale to accumulate on your roses, but dress them with Sibley's Scale Destroyer, obtained in bottles, and apply with paint brush. This will kill all scale without injury to the plant. Mildew is another pest that troubles the rose grower. Different remedies have been applied with success, such as dusting them over with flower of sulphur, early in morning, while the dew is on roses, then syringing them with emulsion. These are the ingredients for an emulsion—say half pound of soft soap, half pint kerosine, two gallons water, all well mixed, stir well each time before using, and apply with syringe. Sometimes it is as well to cut the rose back, and let it start afresh.

ORCHARD.—This is the great month for planting fruit trees, also grape vines.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Repeat the sowings of last month in smaller quantities with the exception of onions, which may now be sown in larger beds, either to stand or to transplant the thinning out ones. Continue transplanting the plants from seeds sown last month. Broad beans do well in most districts if sown this month. Silver beet is a most useful vegetable, and may be sown now. The leaves are boiled, and resemble spinach. The root is left in the ground, and after each rain a fresh batch of leaves shoot, and at least half a dozen pullings can be taken from each plant. This is a good time for preparing asparagus beds. In retentive soil the ground should be dug eighteen inches or two feet deep, and well broken up, any long litter, weeds or strong rubbish being buried to that depth to ensure drainage; but in light soil double digging is ample, and though a gross feeder, no manure is needed the first two or three seasons in our ordinary soils.

FARM.—This month should see the maize crop harvested in all cases but the very late sown, and all ground should be ploughed and devoted to the growth of winter feed for cattle, sheep, or pigs. If any is not needed, it can be ploughed under in July or August, and forms a valuable manure—cow pea or vetches for preference. This is the month to try for a crop of potatoes in the north. Those planted in February will now be fit to harvest, and may be ploughed out or left a week or two longer in the ground, as the work on the farm or state of the market may guide. This month is in most districts the best to sow wheat, though it is better to spread the seeding period over some weeks, always bearing in mind that more depends on a good seed bed and favourable weather for seed germination than the day of the month the seed is sown. Do not neglect any ploughing that can be done. Don't have to wish next month you had done it this. On the Pacific slope attention should be given to falling scrub, stumping and bringing under cultivation fresh areas as the cool weather favours such work.

JUNE.

FLOWER GARDEN.—The time has fully come to plant the Queen of Flowers—the rose—as spoken of in April. Those who wish to have a splendid show of beautiful blooms must lose no time in selecting strong good plants of ever-blooming roses. Plant in good stiff soil, and give a good heavy mulching of well-rolled manure, and a rich reward of bloom will follow. The flower garden demands special attention at this time. Thoroughly clean all the flower beds from weeds, well dig and manure. Sow annuals of most kinds, such as phlox, carnation, antirrhinum, dianthus, everlastings, lupins, candytuft, mignonette, marigold, pansy, cornflower, calliopsis, gaillardia, sweet pea, larkspur, salpiglossis, leptosyne, linaria, nerembergia gracilis, schizanthus, marguerites, etc. All bulbs should be at once planted, such as daffodils, narcissus, freesias, ixias, tritonia, watsonia, babiana, gladioli, etc.

ORCHARD.—Fruit trees should be got in, of nearly all varieties, so as to let them get a good root hold, ready for spring growth. All varieties of shade and ornamental trees should be planted without loss of time. Pruning and training should be attended to this and next month, as the trees are at rest.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—This month frost may be expected on the Downs and in some of the low-lying districts and except in the more favoured districts where, even in July and August, but occasional light frost is expected. Seeds should be sown but sparingly, the time devoted to transplanting those already sown. Hoeing amongst those transplanted and growing freely, will be time and labour far more profitably spent. Onions when transplanted should only have the fibres of the root covered, the bulb being left clear above ground to ensure thin-necked bulbs of good size and quality. Rhubarb and asparagus may be planted in the beds prepared last month, the roots being purchased or transplanted from seed sown the August or September previous. Weeds will not now be troublesome, but all growing crops benefit largely by the use of the hoe in all stages of growth, except at the period of ripening. Cauliflowers now showing the formation of flower heads should be given a plentiful supply of water at least twice a week if the weather is dry.

FARM.—Lucerne is the main crop needing attention now. As the weeds are very slow in growth, the lucerne gets a clean seed bed and a fair start, and being a deep rooter, has a good start for the ensuing spring. All arrears of wheat sowing should be brought up, double the seed used per acre in April now being required. A dressing for the seed is one pound of sulphate of copper dissolved in twenty gallons of water, the seed being either steeped or sprinkled, and turned over three or four days before sowing. Earliest sown crops should now be found useful. Mangels, cabbage, carrots, and swedes may be used as ready, and potatoes (English and sweet) harvested and all fodder crops stored for future use as they are ready to cut. English potatoes carefully harvested and stored in a cool, dry place will keep sound till December, if looked over in September or October and the eyes cleared of sprouts. Land should now be put in good form with the plough, every yard being turned as it is cleared, and left exposed to sun and air in the whole furrow. Arrowroot will now be ready for digging soon, as frost has made its appearance. Yams and ginger, too, may be taken up. In the north all seeds of the temperate climes may be sown this month, and will, in most cases, provide a splendid treat in August, September, and October. All tropical seeds may be sown there, and cuttings planted.

JULY.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Keep all weeds down and well fork up between roses and trees already planted. The addition of manure mulching will well repay you. Sow flower seeds for spring and early summer flowering, such as snapdragon, phlox, gaillardia, calliopsis, candytuft, scarlet flax, lupins, mignonette, sweet pea, poppy, marigold—English, French, and African—summer chrysanthemums, scabiosa, sweet sultan, scabious, cornflower, carnation, clarkia, eschscholtzia—white and yellow—forget-me-not, marvel of Peru, malope, rhodanthe, acroclinium, globe amaranthus, pyrethrum stocks, Virginian stock, lobelia, nasturtium, Swan River daisy, browallia elata, Canterbury bells, columbine, mauranda (creeper), cobeia scandens (creeper), thumbergia (creeper), love-in-a-mist, nemophila, petunia, pentstemon, canary creeper, etc. For a sure return for your labour, we strongly advise all seeds to be planted in seed boxes. This little trouble will ensure you a splendid lot of plants, of course, always providing your seeds are fresh and good. Still plant roses and flowering shrubs. For a small garden there are a dozen good roses that will give you flowers nearly all the year round. Triomphe de Pernet Pere (red), Kaiserin Augusta Victoria (white with lemon centre), Marie Van Houtte (white edged pink), Mamon Cochet (pink), Mamon Cochet (white), Perle des Jardins (yellow), Francois Dubreuil (velvet crimson), Madame de Watteville (salmon-pink bordered rose), Souv. de la Malmaison (flesh colour), Vick's Caprice (bright pink, marbled white), Niphetos (pure white), Christine de Noe (deep purplish red). These are twelve really good roses; of course there are many more. Now for three or four good climbers—Marechal Neil (deep yellow), climbing Kaiserin Victoria (creamy white), climbing Meteor (deep crimson), climbing Malmaison (fresh color), James Sprunt (black red), La Marque (white), Reine Marie Henrietta (bright red). For a small garden these will make bloom all the year round—that is, with proper attention. Close cut back all old roses that show no signs of flowering. Do not be afraid of cutting and thinning out; they will soon make a fresh start, and give increased bloom later on.

ORCHARD.—The orchard should this month be thoroughly cleaned and the surface stirred, all arrears of both planting and pruning being fully overtaken.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—Again the gardener will need to sketch out his scheme of operations in the kitchen garden, the object being to provide a succession of delicious vegetables of various kinds always in plenty, but never overabounding or scarce. To ensure this frequent sowings and plantings are necessary, and this may be accounted the best month in the year to make a systematic start. It is taken for granted that all vacant ground has been dug, and after the first rain in July sow cabbage, carrot, parsnips, peas, a good breadth in rows three feet apart, leeks, onions, eschalots, beetroot, swede turnips, and the small saladings such as mustard cress, radishes, and lettuce. In very warm districts cucumbers, vegetable marrows, chokos, and a few French and butter beans may be sown, but they, like tomatoes, water and rock melons, will not do as well as if sown next month. Pinch the tops of broad beans to assist the flowers to set, keep the ground well on the move amongst the growing crops, especially the onions. In districts subject to frost, water the seed beds in the morning, but avoid the watering-can as much as possible consistent with safety to the seedlings growth.

FARM—The farm should be a garden enlarged, and at this season the plan of the year can be best mapped out, and each farmer must, to be successful, take into calculation his requirements for home consumption, profiting by past experiences, whether of shortage or over abundance. Ground should now be prepared for the potato crop by deep ploughing and frequent working with disc or spring-tooth harrows, though it is not wise to plant large areas till the last week in the month, and even then it is a risk in districts subject to frost. Tubers may be cut, but for early and late planting whole seed are more reliable. Grass seeds of approved kinds may still be sown, and lucerne if not sown last month may now, with success, be sown; also oats for hay, but these must not be grazed if good hay is desired. The principal work now is preparing ground for potatoes, cotton, maize, sugar cane, tobacco, sisal hemp, and for the final sowing of mangels and field carrots, which this month should find completed. Harvesting the sugar cane will now be in full swing, both in the north and south, and those engaged in this work will find but little time to overtake arrears of other work. Coffee planters, too, will be busy with their harvest, and arrowroot growers will be reaping the fruits of their labour. The farmer who intends to be well in hand with his work must see that July leaves nothing waiting for August, except well prepared fields for the maize, potatoes, etc., that he has waiting to be placed in them.

Memoranda.

AUGUST.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Now is the time to commence sowing summer annuals—coxcomb, zinnias, portulaca, helichrysum, balsam, nasturtium, and most of those named in last month. Portulaca is very pretty either for a border or to plant in whole beds; the colours are brilliant, and will keep on flowering till next autumn. The double variety, though more expensive, is very handsome. In zinnias, the new giant gives fine large double blooms. Balsams of any variety are very gorgeous, but the best of all is the camellia flowering variety, bearing flowers of unique colors almost as large as roses. Sow asters of all kinds now. They will give a good summer show. There is still time to plant roses, shrubs, and shade trees. Do not neglect your pot plants. Re-pot where necessary, and those you do not re-pot, well stir up the soil round the plant and add a little bone dust. This will start them off for the spring growth.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—In the vegetable garden all the seeds mentioned last month may be sown in smaller quantities, the last reliable sowing of cabbage being made, as these will carry on the season till the New Year. The winter vegetable seeds should now give place to the more tender tropical ones that flourish in fierce sunshine and torrential rains. Yams, sweet potatoes, vegetable marrows, pumpkins, cucumbers, tomatoes, rosellas, water, rock and pie melons may now be sown. The tender French and butter beans will now be safe in almost all localities, and the better plan is to look carefully through the garden, and make good any deficiency in last month's seeding, or sow more of the kinds in greatest demand; but don't omit the small saladings, they are so tempting when the weather is hot, and they taste so much better from your own garden than from that of a Chinaman. A few bushes stuck among the salad beds or a few seeds of sweet corn, will provide shade and help growth, care being exercised to plant them on the north or sunny side of the beds.

FARM.—The only ploughing to be done in August is that which by no possible chance could have been done in July, or that still occupied by fodder, crops or roots. The latter will now be swelling, and should be given the final clearing with scarifier or hoe. The drooping leaves of mangel may, with advantage to the crop and the cows, be used as food for the latter. They do not taint the milk; are succulent; and at this season are second only to cabbage as milk producers. Just try your cows, and see if they like them. Potatoes will now be well sprouted, and may be planted freely. Maize may be sown in all districts, but that sown thus early will be a prey to weavils in its last stage of ripening. Pumpkins (cattle and table) may be sown, but the lady-bird and other insect pests pay them much attention thus early, especially on the coastal lands. Arrowroot should be planted, and towards the end of the month ginger and tobacco seed may be sown, and if sweet potato vines are available, they may be planted. Keep the cultivation as free from weeds as possible. Don't forget that if little weeds are kept from growing, there will be no big ones to destroy. This and next month will test the value of the work done in the early months of the year. Cattle and horses now benefit by the splendid feed afforded by the breadths of Algerian oats, prairie grass, etc., those thus equipped feeling the benefit in the cream cheque and healthy look of their stock.

SEPTEMBER.

FLOWER GARDEN.—This month sow, as in last month, for summer blooming, zinnias, portulaca, helichrysum (a various colored everlasting flower), balsam, petunia, phlox, dianthus, snapdragon, aster. All roses planted now must be from pots, so as not to disturb the young growth at roots. Mangoes and camphor laurels may be planted, in fact, all kinds of shrubs can go in, provided they are from pots. Complete all pruning, dig up flower beds and borders, keep walks clear from weeds. Where the lawn is impaired sprinkle some seed of lawn grasses or couch; cover and water. This will cover bare patches. Plant verbenas, hollyhocks, gladiolus bulbs, tuberose, amaryllis, etc. Chrysanthemums, for show purposes, should be got in now. Don't forget to re-pot plants in the bush house, and add a little bone dust. This will help them on to maturity. All plants, such as trees and roses, will require attention as to watering, as the west winds are very trying even in this month. A good mulching of old manure is a good thing to keep the dry weather out and the moisture in.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—In the garden that has been well tended there will now be an abundance of vegetables, and all those that are at their best should be used, and the ground dug, and planted with rosellas or sown with beans of kinds. Yams may now be planted in rows or hillocks, the soil being light and friable. A few rows of peas may be sown early in the month, and will do fairly well. Asparagus beds will be in full bearing, and a dressing of salt will help them on. Salt is a useful top dressing, but needs care, as if used excessively it creates sterility. It checks insect and fungoid pests, assists in checking evaporation, etc., but used in excess, causes the soil to bake after rain. This month all the seeds named last month may be sown, but with the exception of those natives of the tropics. The most success will be attained on land sloping to the south or south-west, to avoid the direct rays of the sun. All vegetables sown from now on to the end of the year must have attention, especially in watering. When watering, give a good soaking in the evening, and stir the soil on the following day to prevent baking, as direct opposite conditions prevail to those advised upon in July to minimise damage by frost.

FARM.—The spring having fully come, the Darwinian theory of the survival of the fittest must be the incentive to the active use of the horse and hand hoes. Too much dependence is placed in these days of hurry and bustle upon the horse or motor machinery for cleaning the land, but in maize, potatoes, sugarcane, etc., the rows and stools must be hand cleaned, or they become the seed beds of future trouble, for it is impossible to keep land clear of weeds if those growing in the rows are continually left to seed. All crops sown last month may with advantage be sown this month. Cotton seed should be sown and sugar-cane planted, rice also may be sown, and on our coastal lands is one of the crops yet to receive the attention it is worthy of. The ground cleared of fodder crops should be at once ploughed, and as soon as in good order sown or planted, the dairyman now remembering that a hot spell in December or January will be met and negotiated more successfully if he now sows a few acres of a succulent fodder crop for use then, looking for his return in the cream rather than the sale direct of the crop grown. Prairie grass, Rhodes grass, paspalum, or Phalaris sown now on well-prepared ground after a thunder shower will grow well, and in November will be in good form for the milkers. Do not allow them to crop too closely if the weather be dry, as if they just take off the leads, the grass will grow more strongly, and a month later they may browse on first-class feed at their own will. Maize, sorghum, panicum, imphee, tobacco, and pumpkin are the principal seeds for the field, while English and sweet potatoes can be planted with good prospect of remunerative crops.

Memoranda

Memoranda.

OCTOBER.

FLOWER GARDEN.—All dahlias should now be planted. There are many very beautiful varieties of this showy flower. The double cactus dahlia is occupying a very important place amongst the class, of which there are many very beautiful kinds. It will not be amiss here to mention a dozen splendid cactus varieties—Connell's Crest (richest of the cherry red section), Captain Dreyfus (dar velvety maroon), Delicata (soft black), Dr. Nansen (bright scarlet), Empress of India (rich maroon crimson, very dark), Henry Patrick (white), Jealousy (dark yellow), Lord Roberts (the grandest white), Midnight Sun (intense crimson), Mrs. E. Connell (clear yellow, shaded red), Robert Connell, Magenta, the Czar, the Queen. The chief work to do, is to well attend to things that are flowering, by gently stirring up between plants, and raking over, keeping off all weeds in flower beds and in paths, keep grass well cut, and hedges well trimmed. Fruit trees, as mentioned in last month, may be planted from pots. Watch the bush house, doing any re-potting required, and potting off caladium, feeding pot plants with liquid manure. Look to your roses and keep them clear from scale and mildew by using remedies already mentioned. Those showy plants, the coleus, are so easily grown from slips, and give such a blaze of tropical beauty, that really no one should be without them. They do in greenhouse, bushes, verandahs, and they colour beautifully in a shady nook of your garden. The caladiums are a beautiful showy class of plants, but out of glass they do not color so well nor last too long.

ORCHARD.—Fruit trees of all kinds need attention this month; parasitic and fungoid pests being now usually a source of trouble, spraying, washing, etc., must not be neglected.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—The work in the kitchen garden this month needs care and judgment as to the climatic conditions usual in the district, for all seeds now sown will have to be brought to maturity in the most trying weather. It is therefore the best policy to sow in small quantities any of the beans—French, Lima, Madagascar, and butter—and repeat in about a fortnight, as by this means a continuation is assured, and water can be supplied when in flower. One good drenching at this period, and a mulching of grass or long manure, amongst which a good sprinkling of salt can be thrown, will cause a good crop of pods to set, and preserve them from the ravages of insect pests. If the latter are very troublesome a little quick lime dusted over the rows when the dew is on will check them. Tobacco water sprinkled on young seedlings is one of the best remedies for insects and grubs. Melons, vegetable marrows, rosellas, cucumbers, and the saladings must not be neglected if the coming heat is to be anticipated. All vegetables planted out this month need more space, or they will become weakly and drawn, and more easily become a prey to disease.

FARM.—As the soil temperature increases, so does the growth of both crops and weeds, and there must be no cessation in the destruction of the latter amongst all crops amongst which implements can be moved. As the crops increase in vigor more care is needed, not to injure the fibrous roots, the earth being worked towards the rows, and not from them as in the earlier stages of growth. English potatoes need great care, as the tubers of the earlier plant will soon be ready for market, and the final earthing of all should be done speedily as possible. The plantation of sugar-cane should be pushed forward with all speed, the sets being planted in rows five feet apart and from two to three feet apart in the rows. Cotton plants should be thinned out and any misses filled in by transplanting. In some districts the wheat and barley crops will be ready for harvest, and farmers will do well to remember that the straw is worth taking care of, because there will be another drought by-and-bye. Harvest all fodder crops as they are in the best condition—that is, when the most valuable food can be conserved, which is generally when the plant is beginning to turn ripe, or as soon as possible after the flower buds have begun to expand. Plant cuttings of sweet potato on light, loamy ground, also Kaffir corn, yams, arrowroot, rice, and ginger; also earth nuts, tumeric, and chicory. Any ground from which crops have been removed, or any lucerne paddocks that do not look like doing well, should be ploughed at once, and well torn about by disc or spring-tooth harrows preparatory to being sown with maize next month.

Memoranda.

NOVEMBER.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Not much planting to be done this month and next; the idea is to look after those now growing. Dahlias may still be planted. Bulbs have mostly done flowering now, and are fairly ripe. These should be taken up, and stored away in a dry place for the time being, but it is just as well to look them over now and then, and pick out bad ones. A few zinnias and balsams can be planted, and sunflowers. Speaking of sunflowers, there is one variety called Stella, which we would certainly recommend to grow in preference to the baby sunflower. It is a little flower somewhat larger and better for cutting, single of course. There are two shades of this, yellow and sulphur yellow, and there is a very pretty double one called Soliel, of sulphur yellow, very pale. Hoe all your beds, loosen the soil, all mulching, clean scale off roses, tie up plants, get weeds off the paths and beds, water well in the evening—not in the morning, as the sun dries it up too quickly—but by watering in evening the plants get the benefit of it all night. Take care of your pot plants by stirring up soil and giving them liquid manure or bone dust.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—The general idea that good vegetables can be grown only in cooler months is a fallacy that John Chinaman has exploded, and if but one hour per diem were spent in the vegetable garden, the pleasures of the householder would be extensively enhanced, and his payments to the Chinaman greatly reduced, the work being pleasant, instructive, healthy, and remunerative. Sweet potato vines may be planted freely on any ground from which a crop has just been removed. Rhubarb roots need shade. Few seeds should be sown now, but close attention must be paid to those sown last month, and great care must be manifested in planting out any ready to move. Take advantage of every shower for this work, disturbing the roots as little as possible. The object must now be to keep all crops growing freely, and all seedlings must be protected from fierce sun and heavy rain.

FARM.—The wheat and barley harvest will now be in full work in the areas devoted to the culture of those cereals. In harvesting malting barley the grain should be quite ripe before it is cut. This is known by the ear becoming swan-necked or bent downwards to the straw. It should be exposed as little as possible to the dew or rain, and placed in stack three or four weeks before being threshed, in which operation care must be taken not to chop or skin the grains. Where tobacco is grown top the plants to throw all vigour into the leaf. Plough or dig potatoes soon, as the tubers have set the skin. If desirable to leave in the ground, plough a furrow over the row from each side to keep off the sun or to drain away heavy rain. This plan minimises damage from scalding on the most retentive soils. Maize should be planted largely this month, and on the Downs as soon as the wheat and barley lands are cleared the plough should be at work to prepare for the needs of the cattle in the coming winter. Quick growing crops for ensilage may be now sown, but don't forget that bad fodder in a green state does not become good food by being made into ensilage. Paspalum of sorts, especially dilatatum, sown now and grazed down in January or February, then rested till the winter, will prove a valuable and lasting winter pasture to utilise in conjunction with a paddock of Philaris communata and Algerian oats.

DECEMBER.

FLOWER GARDEN.—Now is about the hottest time of the year, and great care has to be taken with all plants in the flower garden. In the absence of rain, freely water, but always in the evening. Keep the grass lawn well cut, and destroy all weeds, lightly hoe flower bed between the plants, and freely apply any mulching. Cut back roses showing no bloom, and a fresh start will soon be made. Stake the plants that lie straggling on ground. Watch the dahlias, thin out where needed, and make stakes thin. Little can be done this month in sowing seeds.

VEGETABLE GARDEN.—The cycle of the year's work in the kitchen garden is now nearly complete, for the fruit of the work done in the past few months is now being rewarded by the luscious, cool, and appetising fruits and vegetables that we have grown. The water and rock melon, the cucumber, the radish, and lettuce, with a few eschalots for those who like the onion tribe, tempt the most fickle appetite when other more ordinary food seems tasteless, and "Oh, it's too hot to eat" is the universal cry. Therefore, in the cool morning and evening do not begrudge an hour or two to sow a few of such seeds, or to give a little water to the things that are showing sign of distress, for it pays well to watch over the garden now, to give help to those plants that are struggling on by keeping all ripening fruit pods or seeds picked, and to prevent decaying vegetable matter from becoming a harbour for insects and slugs or other vermin. A few beans may be sown, or small saladings, but few seeds grow well this month without shade and careful watering. The seedsman is too often condemned for seeds not germinating, as seeds now sown germinate very quickly but with little vigour, so they easily fall victims to the fierce rays of the sun, or are washed away by a hasty storm.

FARM.—It is now that the energy of the farmer and his men, as well as his horses, will feel the strain. Weeds in such crops as sugarcane and maize will be growing rampantly, and if they obtain the mastery now, there will be a corresponding decrease of yield and quality in the coming harvest, therefore be at them early and late. Maize may still be planted. Heavy returns on the coastal lands result from the maize planted now, and it is more free from weevil than at any other time. Keep the lucerne paddock closely mown, and take care of the best made hay. The wet season will soon be upon us, when good hay is scarce, and it is difficult to make. Given favourable weather, imphee, panicum, sorghum, or Kafir corn may be sown, and arrowroot, ginger, sweet potatoes or earth nuts planted. English potatoes that have not yet been harvested should at once be ploughed out; late kinds do not, as a rule, store well; it is best to market quickly. Land ploughed and furrowed during this and next month, provided the weather be dry, recuperates more quickly than at any other period of the year.

LAND SELECTION IN QUEENSLAND.

The State is divided into Land Agents' Districts, in the principal town of which there is a Government Land Office and Land Agent. Plans and information respecting the quality, rents, and prices of lands available for selection may be obtained on personal or written application to the Land Agent of the District in which the land is situated or to the Officer in Charge, Inquiry Office, Department of Public Lands, Brisbane.

Land is opened or made available for selection by proclamation in the Government Gazette. The proclamation, which is made not less than four weeks before the time appointed for the opening, specifies the modes in which the land may be selected, the area, rent, price, etc.

The several modes of selection for which the law provides are—(1) Agricultural Selection, i.e., Agricultural Farms and Agricultural Homesteads; (2) Grazing Selection, i.e., Grazing Farms and Grazing Homesteads; (3) Scrub Selection; (4) Unconditional Selection; and (5) Prickly Pear Selection. The more accessible lands near lines of railway, centres of population, and navigable waters are usually set apart for agricultural selection in areas up to 1,280 acres, while opportunities of acquiring grazing selections in areas up to 60,000 acres are given over a great extent of Queensland territory within accessible distances of the seaboard and the various lines of railway.

Except in the case of Scrub Selections, Unconditional Selections, and Prickly Pear Selections, no person who is under the age of sixteen years, or who seeks to acquire the land as the agent or servant or trustee of another, will be allowed to select. A single girl under the age of twenty-one years is debarred from selecting an Agricultural Homestead or Grazing Homestead. A married woman is not competent to select an Agricultural Homestead or a Grazing Homestead, unless she has obtained an order for judicial separation or an order protecting her separate property, or is living apart from her husband and has been specially empowered by the Land Court to select a Homestead. A married woman may, however, acquire a Grazing Homestead by transfer after the expiry of five years of the term of lease.

An alien may, under certain conditions, acquire a selection, but unless he becomes a naturalised British subject within three years thereafter, all his right, title, and interest in the land will become forfeited.

Applications for selections must be made in the prescribed form, in triplicate, and be lodged with the Land Agent for the district in which the land is situated. They must be signed by the applicant, but may be lodged in the Land Office by his duly constituted attorney, and must be accompanied by a deposit of a year's rent and one-fifth of the survey fee. Ordinarily, applications take priority in the order of their being lodged with the Land Agent, but applications lodged prior to the time proclaimed as that at which land is to be open for selection are regarded as simultaneous with those lodged at that time.

Where land is open for different modes of selection alternatively, priority among simultaneous applications for the same land is given to an application for it as an Agricultural Homestead as against an application for it as an Agricultural Farm; to an application for it as an Agricultural Farm as against an application for it as an Unconditional Selection; and, if the land is open for Grazing Selection, to an application for it as a Grazing Homestead as against an application for it as a Grazing Farm.

In the case of simultaneous applications for the same land, as an Agricultural Farm, priority is secured by an applicant other than a married woman or a single girl under twenty-one years of age, who, when making application, undertakes to personally reside on the land during the first five years of the lease. In other cases of simultaneous applications for the same land by the same mode of selection, priority is determined by lot, unless in the case of simultaneous applications for the same land as a Grazing Selection, Unconditional Selection, or Prickly Pear Selection, a higher rental is tendered than that proclaimed. In that event the highest tender secures priority.

Under the Special Agricultural Selections Act land may be set apart as Agricultural Homesteads, Agricultural Farms, or Prickly Pear Selections, for any body of settlers who, having some measure of common interest or capacity for mutual help, are desirous of acquiring land in the same locality. The procedure to be followed is for a request to be made to the Minister by the members of the body, explaining the grounds on which they are co-operating and setting out the land they desire to acquire. Should the request be acceded to, the land will be opened for selection in the usual way, but for a period to be set out in the proclamation it will only be available for the members of the body of settlers for whom it has been set apart.

When an application has been accepted by the Land Commissioner and approved by the Land Court, and the applicant has paid for any improvements that may be on the land, he becomes entitled to receive a license to occupy the land in the case of an Agricultural Selection or a Grazing Selection, or a lease in the case of a Scrub Selection, Unconditional Selection, or Prickly Pear Selection. Within six months after the issue of a license, the selector must commence to occupy the land, and must thereafter continue to occupy it in the manner prescribed.

AGRICULTURAL SELECTIONS. AGRICULTURAL FARMS.

The largest area that may be acquired by any one person as an Agricultural Farm is 1,280 acres. If the same person is the selector of both an Agricultural Farm and an Agricultural Homestead, the joint area must not exceed 1,280 acres. The purchasing price may range from 10s. an acre upwards, as may be declared by proclamation. The term is twenty years. The annual rent is one-fortieth of the purchasing price, and the payments are credited as part of the price.

The land must be continuously occupied by the selector residing personally on it or by his manager or agent doing so. Within five years from the issue of the license to occupy, or such extended time as the Court may allow, the selector must enclose the land with a good and substantial fence, or make substantial and permanent improvements on it equal in value to such a fence. On the completion of the improvements the selector becomes entitled to a lease of the farm, and may thereafter mortgage it; or, with the permission of the Minister, may subdivide or transfer it; or, with the approval of the Court, may underlet it.

The selector of an Agricultural Farm, who has obtained priority by undertaking to reside personally thereon during the first five years of the lease, must comply strictly with that undertaking, and is not allowed during such period to mortgage, transfer, or assign the holding.

After five years of the term have elapsed the prescribed conditions of occupation and improvement having been duly performed, a deed of grant may be obtained on payment of the balance of the purchasing price.

AGRICULTURAL HOMESTEADS.

Land open for selection as Agricultural Farms is not available for Agricultural Homesteads unless so proclaimed. The area allowed to be selected as an Agricultural Homestead varies with the quality of the land, and is fixed by proclamation within the following limits, viz.—160 acres in the case of land valued for Agricultural Farm Selection at not less than £1 per acre; 320 acres in the case of land valued at less than £1 but not less than 15s. an acre; and 640 acres in the case of land valued at less than 15s. an acre. The price for a Homestead is 2s. 6d. per acre, the annual rent 3d. an acre, and the term ten years.

The land must be continuously occupied by the selector residing personally thereon.

Within five years from the issue of the license to occupy, or such extended time as the Land Court may allow, the selector must enclose the land with a good and substantial fence, or make substantial and permanent improvements on it equal in value to such a fence. On the completion of the improvements the selector becomes entitled to a lease.

At any time after five years from the commencement of the term, on the selector proving that the conditions have been duly performed and that the sum expended in improvements on the land has been at the rate of 10s., 5s., or 2s. 6d. an acre respectively according to the quality of the land, he may pay up the remaining rent so as to make his total payments equal to 2s. 6d. an acre, and obtain a deed of grant of the land in fee-simple.

GRAZING SELECTIONS.

GRAZING FARMS.

The greatest area which may be applied for as a Grazing Farm under any circumstances is 60,000 acres, but as in the case of other modes of selection each proclamation opening land for grazing selection declares the maximum area which may be selected in the area to which it applies. In the event of lands open under different proclamations, and of a total area exceeding 20,000 acres being applied for by the same person, a rental limitation of £200 per annum must be observed as well as the maximum areas declared by the several proclamations. Thus, of lands open at 2d. per acre, the greatest area obtainable would be 24,000 acres; at 1d. per acre, 32,000 acres, and so on. The term may be fourteen, twenty-one, or twenty-eight years, as the opening proclamation may declare. The annual rent for the first period of seven years may range from 3d. per acre upwards, as may be proclaimed or tendered. The rent for each subsequent period of seven years will be determined by the Land Court.

A Grazing Farm must be continuously occupied by the selector residing personally on it, or by his manager or agent doing so.

Within three years from the issue of the license to occupy, or such extended time, as the Land Court may allow, the selector must enclose the land with a good and substantial fence, and must keep it so fenced during the whole of the term. In the case of two or more contiguous farms, not exceeding in the aggregate 20,000 acres, the Court may by Special License permit the selectors to fence only the outside boundaries of the whole area. If the Proclamation declaring the land open for selection so prescribed, the enclosing fence must be of such character as to prevent the passage of rabbits. In the case of a group of contiguous grazing farms not exceeding eight in number, or 200 square miles in total area, and which are situated within a district constituted under "The Rabbit Boards Act, 1896," the Court may by Special License permit the enclosure of the whole area with a fence of such character as to prevent the passage of rabbits, instead of requiring each farm to be separately enclosed.

The selectors of a group of two or more grazing farms, the area of none of which exceeds 4,000 acres, may associate together for mutual assistance, and on making proof of bona fides to the Commissioner, may receive from him a Special License enabling not less than one-half of the whole number by their personal residence on some one or more of the farms to perform the condition of occupation in respect of all the farms.

When a Grazing Farm is enclosed in the manner required, the selector becomes entitled to a lease of it, and may thereafter mortgage it; or, with the permission of the Minister, may subdivide or transfer it; or, with the approval of the Court, may underlet it.

GRAZING HOMESTEADS.

Lands open for selection as Grazing Farms must also be open for selection as Grazing Homesteads, and at the same rental and for the same term of lease. As already stated, an application to select as a Grazing Homestead takes precedence of a simultaneous application to select the same land as a Grazing Farm. The requirements of the law as regards Grazing Homesteads are the same as in the case of Grazing Farms, except in the following respects:—

- (1.) During the first five years of the term of a Grazing Homestead the condition of occupation must be performed by the continuous personal residence of the selector on the land.

- (2.) Before the expiration of five years from the commencement of the term, or the death of the original lessee, whichever first happens, a Grazing Homestead is not capable of being mortgaged, assigned, or transferred.

SCRUB SELECTIONS.

Lands entirely or extensively overgrown by scrub may be opened for selection as Scrub Selections up to 10,000 acres in area and with a term of thirty years. These are classed according to the proportion covered by scrub, and for periods varying from five to twenty years, according to classification, no rent is chargeable. During this first period the selector must clear the whole of the scrub in equal proportions each year, and must keep it cleared, and must enclose the selection with a good and substantial fence. The annual rent payable for the subsequent periods ranges from $\frac{1}{4}$ d. to 1d. per acre. A negotiable lease is issued to the selector when his application has been approved by the Court.

UNCONDITIONAL SELECTIONS.

The greatest area allowed to be acquired by any one person as an Unconditional Selection in one district is 1,280 acres; the price per acre ranges from 13s. 4d. upwards and is payable in twenty annual instalments. As the term implies, no other conditions than the payment of the purchase money are attached to this mode of selection. A negotiable lease for the term of twenty years is issued to the selector when his application to select has been approved by the Court. A deed of grant may be obtained at any time on payment of the balance of the purchasing price.

PRICKLY PEAR SELECTION.

PRICKLY PEAR INFESTED SELECTIONS.

Prickly pear infested selections comprise lands heavily infested with prickly pear. The area must not exceed 5,000 acres.

The term is thirteen years with a peppercorn rental for the first ten years, and an annual rent of one-third of the purchasing price for the remaining three years. During the first ten years of the term the land must be absolutely cleared of prickly pear—one-tenth during each year—and must be kept clear for the remainder of the term. The freehold may be obtained prior to the expiry of the term on proof being made that the land has been maintained free from prickly pear for three years consequent on the eradication having been completed in advance of prescribed period.

PRICKLY PEAR FRONTAGE SELECTIONS.

Prickly pear frontage selections are confined to proclaimed prickly pear frontage areas, comprising lands free from or only lightly infested with prickly pear, but which adjoin and do not extend for more than seven miles from lands heavily infested. The greatest area allowed is 5,000 acres.

The term is eight years with a peppercorn rental for the first five years, and an annual rental of one-third of the purchasing price for the remaining three years. During the first five years of the term the land must be absolutely cleared of prickly pear—one-fifth during each year—and must be kept clear during the balance of the term.

The freehold may be obtained prior to the expiry of the term on proof being made that the land has been maintained free from prickly pear for three years consequent on the eradication having been completed in advance of the prescribed period.

PRICKLY PEAR (BONUS) SELECTIONS.

In the case of Prickly Pear (Bonus) Selections, the freehold of the land, and a bonus in addition, are granted in return for the complete eradication of the pear. The maximum amount per acre payable as bonus is stated in the opening proclamation, but each applicant must lodge a tender specifying a bonus per acre not in excess of that mentioned in the proclamation. In the case of simultaneous applications for the same land, priority attaches to the lowest tender. The size of the portions opened must not exceed 2,560 acres. The term of lease is ten years, at a peppercorn rental throughout. The land must be absolutely cleared of prickly pear during the first seven years—one-seventh each year—and the clearing must be maintained until the expiry of the lease. One-seventh of the bonus payable may be claimed at the end of each of the first seven years of the term, on proof to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the condition of eradication has been complied with. If the eradication is completed at an earlier date than is required by the conditions of the lease, the balance of the bonus will then become payable. The freehold may be obtained prior to the expiry of the term on proof being made that the land has been maintained free from prickly pear for three years consequent on the eradication having been completed in advance of the prescribed period.

REPURCHASED LANDS.

Land repurchased by the Crown under the provisions of The Agricultural Lands Purchase Acts are made available for Agricultural Farm Selection, on a term of twenty years. The rent to be paid for the first year is equal to £10 for every £100 of the purchasing price, and (no payment being required the second year) an annual payment, £7 19s. for every £100, continued from the third to the twentieth year will, at the end of the term, have paid off the principal sum and interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum. If the payment of the balance of the purchase-money is made before the end of the term a rebate in interest is made accordingly. The selection must be occupied during the term by the residence of the selector or his registered agent. Land remaining open for Agricultural Farm selection for six months may thereafter be opened for Unconditional selection at the same price.

OTHER MODES OF ACQUISITION.

Crown lands may be acquired in fee-simple by auction purchase in areas up to 5,120 acres. There is no limitation to the area of freehold land which may be held by any one person. The minimum purchasing price for agricultural land bought at auction is £1 per acre, and for other land 10s. per acre.

Terms up to ten years may be allowed, with interest at 5 per cent. per annum on instalments paid after six months from the time of sale.

Opportunity is also afforded for the occupation of Crown lands for pastoral purposes from year to year under an occupation license, or for a fixed term not exceeding 42 years under pastoral lease. There is no limitation to the area which may be held by one person under either of these tenures.

REGULATIONS FOR CARRIAGE BY RAIL OF SELECTORS AND THEIR EFFECTS.

(Published in the Supplement to the Government Gazette, 15th November, 1902.)

1. Any bona fide intending selector wishing to inspect land previous to selecting may apply to the Under Secretary for Public Lands for a Certificate (Form A) in respect of the railway journey to and from the railway station nearest to the land he wishes to inspect. This Certificate shall be handed n at the railway station at which the journey is commenced when application is made for the usual railway ticket. For such ticket the ordinary fare must be paid.

2. If the intending selector subsequently selects an Agricultural Selection he will on application to the Under Secretary for Public Lands, receive further Certificates (Forms B, C, D, E) entitling him, on presentation of them to the respective officials mentioned below, to the concessions stated in each case respectively:—

Certificate.	To whom to be presented.	Concession.
B	Secretary to the Commissioner for Railways	A refund of the railway fare paid in respect of the journey mentioned in Certificate A
C	Railway Stationmaster	A free pass for the carriage by rail of the selector and his family to the railway station nearest to his selection
D	Ditto	A free pass for the carriage by rail of the selector's ordinary household furniture and effects, agricultural implements, seed, one dray, and one set of harness to the railway station nearest to his selection
E	Ditto	A reduction of 25 per cent. on the ordinary classification rates for fencing and building material in respect of the carriage of any such material intended for use in improving the selection. This concession will apply also to live stock to a limited extent, and to such other articles as the Minister for Lands may consider it necessary for the selector to use in working his selection.

3. The concessions granted in virtue of Certificates B, C, D, and E must be availed of within six months from the issue to the selector of a license to occupy the land.

4. For the purpose of free carriage by rail, the term "ordinary household furniture" will not include musical instruments, wardrobes, marble articles, bookcases or mirrors (excepting toilet glasses). "Agricultural implements" will not include steam-engines or other motive power, or instruments thereof.

5. Unless certificates are first obtained, as set forth in paragraphs 1 and 2, a selector will not be entitled to any of the concessions provided for, and applications for refunds of fares and freight will not be entertained.

6. Selectors taking advantage of the concessions provided for in these Regulations will be required to pay all charges for lighterage, cartage, etc.

QUEENSLAND.

THE State of Queensland, in the Commonwealth of Australia—formerly known as the Moreton Bay district—comprises the whole of the North-Eastern portion of the Continent of Australia; its boundaries being—on the North the Gulf of Carpentaria and Torres Strait; on the East the Pacific Ocean; on the West the Northern Territory of South Australia—the dividing line being the 141st meridian of longitude from the 29th to the 26th parallel, and thence the 138th meridian; and on the South the State of New South Wales. Its estimated area—exclusive of the islands contiguous to the coast, which, however, belong to Queensland—has been recently computed at 670,500 square miles, being about twelve times the size of England and Wales. Its extreme length from North to South is 1,300 miles, its breadth 800 miles, the coast line being about 2,250 miles. It was visited by Captain Cook in May, 1770; first settled in 1824; and erected into an independent Colony on December 10th, 1859. On January 1, 1901, the various States of Australia became federated in the Commonwealth of Australia. The State is divided into sixty-one Electorates, fifty Districts each returning one member, and eleven Districts each returning two members. It has six Cities, twenty-nine Municipal Towns, and one hundred and twenty-five Shires, the latter embracing upwards of two hundred small Towns or Townships. These are all charged with the construction and maintenance of public highways and other necessary public works within their boundaries. The people of Queensland are principally engaged in pastoral, agricultural, or mining pursuits, or in business connected therewith,

Registration of Births, Marriages, and Deaths.

EVERY Birth must be registered within sixty days, and every Death within thirty days next thereafter respectively; any neglect of this regulation renders the parties whose duty it is to register liable to a fine not exceeding £10. If sixty days have elapsed from the date of birth, the law requires the parent, or other person making the application to register such birth, to pay a fee of two shillings and sixpence, and to make a solemn declaration of the facts before a Justice of the Peace, prior to the registration. The father or mother ought to sign as informant. If unable to write, let a mark be made. No birth can be registered after three years have elapsed from the date thereof; but a record will be made in the Registrar-General's office if reliable information be supplied by the parents respecting such birth.

The birth of an Illegitimate Child must be notified in writing within three days, and the death of one under 5 years of age within twenty-four hours, by the occupier, to a Registrar of Births and Deaths for the District.

In cases occurring outside any City or Town these times are extended to one week.

The Occupier being also the mother, the time for notifying birth is extended to three (3) weeks. These notifications are IN ADDITION to the ordinary registration, which has also to be effected.

Every Minister and Justice authorised to celebrate marriages, who have celebrated a marriage must, within one month thereafter, transmit (in accordance with the Act 28 Victoria, No. 15) the original certificate to the Registrar of the District in which the marriage was celebrated, and every Minister and Justice who fail to transmit the certificate to the District Registrar is liable to a fine of NOT LESS THAN £10, and not exceeding £50. Marriages must be solemnised by Ministers and District Registrars between the hours of 8 a.m. and 8 p.m., and by Justices between the hours of 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. Persons under age must produce the written authority of parents or guardians, signed by them in the presence of a Justice of the Peace, Registered Minister, or District Registrar, or the marriage cannot take place.

Forms required in connection with celebration of marriage are supplied gratuitously to registered ministers of religion, who are not charged any fee for registration of marriages.

In every case of Burial, the Minister or person officiating at any religious service at such Burial, ought to receive from the undertaker, or person having charge of the funeral, a certificate from the District Registrar, certifying the registration of the death, unless in the case of inquest, when a certificate from the Coroner or Magistrate holding the inquest will be sufficient; and if any dead body shall be buried without such certificate, the person who may bury the same, or perform any funeral or religious service for the burial, or who shall in any way dispose of the body, shall forthwith give notice of the facts to the District Registrar. Undertakers are bound, under a penalty not exceeding £10, to lodge with the District Registrar, IMMEDIATELY after the burial a certificate of such burial, signed by themselves and COUNTERSIGNED BY TWO WITNESSES.

Registration.—Any letter, letter card, post card, packet, or newspaper, complying with the Regulations relating thereto, and bearing the registration fee of 3d. in addition to the correct amount of postage shall be accepted for registration. The registration of an article renders its transmission much more secure, and the loss of a registered article is a very rare occurrence; the public are advised to register all articles containing anything of an important nature, and when sending bank notes, drafts, etc., to take note of the numbers and other particulars thereof.

Articles intended for registration should on no account be dropped into a pillar-receiver or posting-box, but must be presented at a post or receiving office during ordinary office hours, and a receipt for same obtained on the proper form.

Where any postmaster or officer of the Post Office has reasonable cause to believe that any unregistered letter or packet contains any valuable enclosure other than money orders or bills of exchange, acceptances, or promissory notes payable to order, cheques, or postal notes or postage stamps not exceeding five shillings in value, such postmaster or officer may register such letter or packet, and charge it with double the prescribed fee for registration, and the sum to be so paid shall be written on such letter or packet by the postmaster or officer of the Post Office who registers the same, and such fee shall be paid by the person to whom it is addressed before delivery, unless such person, before delivery, opens the letter in the presence of some postmaster or officer of the Post Office, and it is found not to contain any valuable enclosure, in which case such fee shall not be charged. Poisons must also be registered in Queensland.

The sender of a registered article may obtain an acknowledgment of its due delivery to the addressee or other person to whom it is delivered by paying in advance, at the time of registration, a fee of 2½d. in addition to the postage and registration fee.

The sender must enter, in the form provided for the purpose, both his own name and address, and the name and address of the person to whom the article is sent, and he must also affix to the form in payment of the fee, a postage stamp of the value of 2½d., which the postmaster or other officer should cancel in the ordinary way.

Post Office Express Delivery Service by Telegraph Messengers.

Letters and packets not exceeding 8 ounces in weight may be specially delivered as follows, namely:—

- (1) By special messenger all the way.—To secure this service, letters and packets must be handed in at an "Express Delivery" Post Office. The fee is 4d. per mile for the first mile, and thereafter 2d. per half-mile up to 2 miles, with a minimum of 5d. including postage.
- (2) By special messenger after transmission by post.—For this service a letter or packet may be posted at any post or receiving office, or in any letter-box or posting receptacle, and be "expressed" on reaching the delivery office, providing such office is an express delivery office. The fee of 4d. in addition to the ordinary postage must be prepaid by affixed postage stamps.
- (3) By special delivery in advance of the ordinary delivery by postman.—By this means any person may make an arrangement with the postmaster of any express delivery office to secure the immediate delivery of his own correspondence on its arrival. Letters or packets must not weigh more than 8oz. each, or 4lb. in the aggregate, and the full express fee of 4d. a mile or fraction of a mile must be paid for one article, and 4d. for every additional article beyond the first.
- (4) Special delivery by travelling mail officers at all railway stations where the mail trains are timed to stop without passing through the local post office or waiting local delivery. The delivery fee of 4d. must be affixed by postal stamp together with the ordinary postage and the usual late fee, and letters or packets so stamped may be accepted by any travelling mail officer for delivery at any railway platform where the mail train is timed to stop.

NEWSPAPERS.

Definition of Newspaper and Supplement.

A newspaper shall mean any publication known and recognised as a newspaper in the generally accepted sense of the word, and printed and published within the Commonwealth for sale if—

- (a) it consists in substantial part of news and articles relating to current topics, or of religious, technical, or practical information; and (b) it is published in numbers at intervals of not more than one month; and (c) the full title and date of publication are printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title and the date of publication are printed at the top of every subsequent page.

A publication printed on paper and issued as a supplement to a newspaper shall be deemed to be a supplement and to be part of the newspaper if—

- (a) it consists in substantial part of reading matter other than advertisements, or of engravings, prints, lithographs, or coloured supplements; and (b) it is enclosed in each posted copy of the newspaper with which it is issued; and (c) it has the title of the newspaper with which it is issued printed on the top of each page of letterpress; and (d) it is not of a size or form which makes it inconvenient for carriage or delivery by post.

Registration of Newspapers.

The proprietor, printer, or publisher of any newspaper, as defined by Section 28 of the Post and Telegraph Act, 1901, may register it at the General Post Office of any State subject to the following conditions:—

- (a) The application for registration must be made in writing. (b) It must contain a description of the newspaper to be registered, and show at what intervals the same is or is intended to be published. (c) It must be accompanied by a copy of the newspaper to be registered, and a fee of 5s.

The Deputy Postmaster-General of such State may from time to time, subject to appeal as to which see Guide) revise the register, and may call upon the proprietor, printer, or publisher of any publication, a posted copy of which contains indecent or obscene matter, or which by reason of the proportion of advertisements to other matter therein or for any other reason is not within the foregoing definition, to show cause why such publication should not be removed from the register, and if sufficient cause be not shown he may remove it accordingly, and any publication for the time being on the register shall be deemed a registered newspaper. Publishers of registered newspapers are required to print on the first page of each copy issued the words "Registered at the General Post Office, _____, for transmission by post as a newspaper."

No publication which after the expiration of one month from the 1st December, 1901, is tendered for transmission at any Post Office in the Commonwealth shall be sent by post as a newspaper unless the foregoing provisions have been complied with.

Any proposed change in the form of a newspaper must be submitted for the consideration of the Deputy Postmaster-General.

Any Deputy Postmaster-General may refuse to transmit or deliver any issue of a publication if such issue contains indecent or obscene matter.

Any posted newspaper found to contain indecent or obscene matter may be destroyed by order of the Postmaster-General.

A copy of each issue of every registered newspaper in Queensland must be sent to the Deputy Postmaster-General, at Brisbane, and it shall not be necessary to prepay such copies.

All unregistered or irregularly-posted newspapers, and all newspapers having any matter which is not a supplement accompanying them, shall be treated as packets.

General Regulations.

A newspaper may be sent either with or without a cover but must be open at both ends, and there shall not be in or upon any such newspaper or the cover thereof any communication, character, figure, letter, or number (other than the words "newspaper only"; or a line drawn through any report, article, or paragraph therein; the printed title of such newspaper, the printed names, occupations, and places of business of the printer, publisher, and vendor thereof, the name, occupation, and address of the person to whom it is sent and the name of the person who sends the same), nor shall anything other than a supplement be enclosed in, or with, or accompany such newspaper or cover, otherwise such newspaper shall not be transmitted or delivered.

Provided always that any newspaper bearing on the cover or outside of the fold, any printed matter, not permitted for newspapers, may be transmitted at the rate charged for printed papers.

If a newspaper addressed to any place within the Commonwealth be found to contain writing or any illegal enclosure, it must be forwarded to the Deputy Postmaster-General with a report of the circumstances; but if the newspaper be addressed to any place beyond the Commonwealth, it shall be sent to the Dead Letter Office.

Newspapers except those forwarded in bulk, addressed to several persons, to be delivered separately at each address, must not be tied up in bundles, and each newspaper must bear the proper postage.

Two or more newspapers to the same address can be tied together, but the outside newspaper or wrapper must bear on its face or addressed side the full postage for each paper, and the parcel should be tied so that the number of papers can be counted.

Newspapers (not being those forwarded in bulk) made up in packets bearing the same address can be transmitted at printed-paper rate of postage, but the weight of any such packet must not exceed 5lb.

Collected numbers of a newspaper shall not be transmitted through the post as a single newspaper, but postage must be paid on each copy contained therein.

When, owing to a great influx of newspapers, the transmission or delivery of letters would be delayed if the whole were dealt with without distinction, newspapers may be kept back until a later despatch or delivery.

Newspaper contents bills are not admissible at newspaper rate, but must be paid for at packet rate. They may, however, if properly addressed and having the requisite postage affixed, be placed under the string of the bundle of newspapers to which they refer, thus securing their delivery with the newspapers.

PACKETS.

Packets may consist of Commercial Papers, Printed Papers, or Patterns, Samples, and Merchandise as hereinafter defined.

Commercial Papers.

Commercial papers include all papers and documents not wholly printed, which have not the character of actual or personal correspondence, such as—Acceptances, accounts, invoices, receipts, ballot-papers, bankers' packets, bank pass-books, or pass-books or cards connected with a Society, bills of exchange, bills of lading, cheque forms bound in books, drafts, copies of telegrams used as vouchers, drawings (not wholly printed), examination paper (corrections allowed), insurance documents (policies, etc.), invoices, legal documents (affidavits, briefs, deeds, depositions, etc.), manuscript or forms filled up in writing for printing or publication, maps (not wholly printed), music (written), notice of meetings, obliterated postage stamps, pay-sheets, plans (not wholly printed), prices current, promissory-notes signed or unsigned, proxy forms or notices, rate notices, receipts, returns or periodical statements, Savings Bank forms forwarded from a public department, Savings Bank acknowledgments closed or open, scrip, ships' manifests, specifications, spent letters (that is, letters which have clearly served their original purpose, and are at least two months old), stock sheets, travellers' cards, circulars or orders, travelling stock notices, way-bills, and other similar articles.

Printed Papers of all kinds except Newspapers

Printed papers include all printed matter (except newspapers), such as books, magazines, pamphlets, sheets of music, visiting cards, address cards, circulars (wholly printed), proofs of printing, papers impressed with points in relief for the use of the blind, engravings, photographs, and albums containing photographs, pictures, drawings, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, and similar articles, whether loose or in book form. Printed patterns usually sent in or with a magazine or journal of fashion printed in the Commonwealth of Australia from type set up therein, or from stereotyped plates made therefrom, may be considered as part of such magazine or journal.

The following may also be allowed to pass as printed papers, viz.:—Circulars which are in other respects admissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the type-writer, or are produced by means of any mechanical process from written or typewritten originals, may be transmitted at the "Printed Papers" rate of postage, provided they are handed in at the counter of a Post Office, and at least twenty copies precisely identical are posted at the same time. Each cover must be marked by the sender "20 posted."

All printed matter with written additions, corrections, or alterations must be sent as commercial papers, but writing in the nature of a letter or personal communication is not permissible, and if any such writing appear on the article the latter may be charged as an insufficiently prepaid letter.

Cards bearing the inscription "Post Card" shall not be allowed to pass as printed papers.

Patterns, Samples, and Merchandise.

The following and similar articles may be forwarded under this class, viz.:—Celluloid, Glass, merchandise, mineral specimens, natural history specimens (such as dried or preserved animals or plants, geological specimens, etc., when sent for no commercial purpose), liquids, oils, and fatty substances, ointment, soft soap, resin, dry powders, whether dyes or not, paper, parchment or vellum, patterns, live bees and live but harmless entomological specimens, samples, seeds, wedding cake (securely packed). Patterns and samples may contain the name and commercial style of the sender, the address of the person for whom they are intended, the manufacturer's or trade mark, numbers, prices, and indications relative to weight or measurement and dimensions, or to the quantity to be disposed of, or such as are necessary to determine the origin and the nature of the goods.

General Packet Regulations.

The maximum weight for a packet of commercial papers or printed papers shall be 5lb.; and for patterns, samples, and merchandise, 1lb. No packet may exceed 2 feet in length, or 1 foot in depth or breadth, or if in a roll 2 feet 6 inches in length, or be of inconvenient form.

Wholly unpaid or insufficient prepaid packets posted in the Commonwealth for delivery therein may be forwarded to destination charged with double the deficiency.

A packet may be sent through the post either without a cover (when it must not be fastened with anything adhesive), or in a cover entirely open at one end or side, or with the flap left unsealed, or fastened with a binder, or tied with string, so as to permit of easy withdrawal of the contents.

PRIVATE MAIL BAGS.

A private mail bag may be made up for any person, or for a number of persons, residing on a mail route, but beyond a mile from a post office, subject to the following Regulations:—

1. The charge for a private bag made up and despatched not more than three times a week shall be £1 per annum, but if the bag be made up and despatched more frequently the charge shall be £2: provided, however, that the charge for bags made up in country post offices not more than once daily, and conveyed from and to the post office by a private messenger, shall be £1 per annum if made up not more than once daily, and £2 if made up more than once daily. In each case the charge shall be payable in advance.

2. Payments must be arranged so that renewal fees fall due on the 1st January in each year; new subscribers to pay the proportion of fee at the annual rate from the first day of the quarter in which they commence to the end of December following.

3. The bag, which must be of leather or strong canvas, must be provided at the cost of the person requiring it, and be large enough to contain all articles sent and received by post; if furnished with a lock, two keys must be provided—one for the postmaster and the other for the owner.

4. The postmaster must lock or seal the bag for despatch, and it must be returned in like manner; if a seal is used, the impression must be made known to the postmaster.

5. The bag may contain postal articles for all persons in the employ of the proprietor, or who, with the written consent of the proprietor of the bag, give written authority to the postmaster to enclose them in such bag. The person who pays for the bag shall be responsible for the unpaid postage on all postal articles contained in the bag. He must furnish receipts for such of its contents as may have been registered, and forward to the post office acknowledgments of delivery, duly signed by the addressees. The proprietor of the bag must return all correspondence for persons who have left his station or place, and also any letters, etc., enclosed in error. Every bag must have printed upon it, or upon a leather or metal label, securely attached to the bag, the name of the owner, or the place where it is to be delivered, as well as the name of the post office with which it is exchanged. When a bag is made up for a number of persons the name of one of the number, to whom the bag may be addressed, must be specified. Telegrams enclosed in a private bag may be transmitted free of postage; but other correspondence so enclosed and intended for delivery at the township where the bag is opened or for onward despatch, must bear the correct amount of postage payable thereon.

6. In case of non-payment of postage or detention of receipts or acknowledgments for registered articles, the postmaster may decline to forward any more articles of those classes.

7. A contractor is bound to convey and deliver, free of charge, all private bags given him by the postmaster or under his instruction, but he is not required to deviate from the usual mail route or road, unless instructed by the Deputy Postmaster-General, and must on no account be delayed. Should the return bag not be ready at the appointed time and place, the contractor must not wait for it.

Private Boxes.

Locked Private Boxes may be rented at the General Post Office, and where provided at other post offices, on payment, in advance, of a fee of £1, £2, or £3 per annum, according to the size of box required. Payments must be arranged so that renewal fees fall due on the 1st January in each year; new subscribers to pay the proportion of fee at the annual rate from the first day of the quarter in which they commence to the end of December following. Two keys shall be supplied with each box, but a fee of 1s. shall be charged for the use of each additional key supplied, and keys must not be obtained elsewhere than from the Department. On a box-holder relinquishing the use of a box he shall be required to, at once, return all keys supplied to him, as they are the property of the Postmaster-General, otherwise he shall be charged the rental fee for the box until they are returned. If a key be lost, information must at once be given to the officer in charge of the local post office and the remaining key or keys returned to such officer when a new lock, for which a charge of 5s. shall be made, will be fitted in the box, and two keys supplied. The Postmaster-General may refuse to let a private box to any person or persons, and may cancel the tenancy of a private box at any time, if he considers such box is intended to be, or is being used for objectionable purposes. Private boxes shall be let only on the foregoing conditions, and upon any breach thereof the Postmaster-General may at once withdraw permission for the use of a box.

NOTE.—It materially facilitates the sorting, and consequently the delivery, of correspondence when it bears as portion of the address the number of the box. The Postmaster-General, therefore, invites the assistance and co-operation of correspondents and box-holders in this regard.

PARCELS POST.

LIMIT OF WEIGHT AND SIZE.—Parcels not exceeding 11lb. in weight, 3 feet 6 inches in length, or 6 feet in length and girth combined, may be accepted for transmission from and to all Parcel Post Offices in the Commonwealth, served by railway, coach, or steamboat. Parcels from or to Parcel Post Offices within the Commonwealth, not served by railway, coach, or steamboat, must not exceed 3lb. in weight; should a parcel be received exceeding that weight addressed to a place to which it is not transmissible, it must be forwarded to the nearest Parcel Post Office on the mail route, served by railway, coach, or steamboat, and the addressee be duly advised thereof. Parcels are only conveyed by certain horse services in South Australia.

Parcels exceeding 11lb. in weight or of greater dimensions than those prescribed shall not be accepted for transmission through the post. Any such parcels which may be irregularly posted must not be forwarded to destination, but, if practicable, returned to the sender.

The postage must be fully prepaid by means of adhesive postage stamps, which the sender or person handing in the parcel must affix either close to the address on the wrapper, or to a label, obtainable at any post office. If the contents of a parcel be of a fragile nature, or postage stamps will not readily adhere to the wrapper, such stamps must be affixed to a tie-on label attached to the parcel. Postal officials must not affix postage stamps to the labels or covers of parcels.

In addition to the name and address of the person for whom it is intended, every parcel must bear the name and address of the sender on the wrapper thus:—From _____ of _____

The contents of parcels must be securely packed and closed in such a manner as to preserve them from injury and from injuring other parcels. Parcels containing—must be so securely packed as to prevent the contents from escaping and the covers or vessels in which they are enclosed must be sufficiently strong to prevent breakage in transmission. The word "Fragile" or "Perishable," as the case may be, and the nature of the covering or vessel, and contents, must be indorsed on the outer wrapper. The edges and points of all sharp instruments must be protected, and articles which are likely to injure other articles must be packed in separate parcels. When considered necessary by the Postmaster-General, hermetically-sealed tins, and wooden packing-boxes, with a sufficient quantity of absorbent matter, must be used.

- (a) fragile articles—millinery, toys, musical instruments, etc.; (b) perishable articles—eggs, butter, flowers, fish, etc.; (c) liquids or semi-liquids—medicines, oils, paints, jellies, etc.

The wrappers of parcels which have become torn or damaged in transit must be made as secure as practicable. If the address of any parcel be rendered illegible, such parcel must, if possible, be returned to the sender.

A parcel intended for transmission by parcel post must not be posted in a posting box or pillar, but must be handed in at a parcel post office, and the officer to whom it is handed must check the weight, size, and postage, before accepting it; if it be not fully prepaid, or exceed the limit of weight or size it must not be accepted.

Where satisfactory arrangements can be made, parcels shall be delivered as addressed. At all other parcel post offices notice shall be given to addressees, and delivery must be taken at the Parcel Post Office. In all cases senders must advise addressees by post of despatch of parcels, so as to insure prompt delivery.

A receipt must be given by the addressee or his agent before delivery of a parcel. In the case of roadside delivery, addressees may authorise a mailman to receive and sign for their parcels at the parcel post office nearest to their address; but any such authority must be in writing, with the name of the mailman inserted.

If the sender of a parcel posted for delivery within the Commonwealth apply for its return to him prior to its despatch from the office at which it was posted, such parcel shall be handed back without charge, but the postage paid thereon shall not be refunded. If, after its despatch from the office at which posted, but before delivery to the addressee, the sender applies for the return of a parcel, the request must, if possible, be complied with, but before it is handed back to him, the sender must pay half postage at the fully prepaid rate, but not less than 6d. together with the cost of telegram of advice, if one has been required, and any other charges due on such parcel.

The following shall be the rates of postage charged on inland and interstate parcels, viz. :—

Destination.	RATE OF POSTAGE.

OPENING OF PARCELS AND EXAMINATION OF CONTENTS.—Parcels may be opened and examined by Postal Officers, but after so opening the examining officer must securely refasten them. In the case of parcels from places beyond the State of destination, their contents may be examined by the Customs officers in the parcel post office, and, where duties are payable, the same must be paid before the parcels are delivered. Parcels may, however, be forwarded in bond to places where Customs officers are stationed, to be opened in the presence of such officers, who must collect and account for any duty payable on them. Parcels, the contents of which are not dutiable, must be forwarded at once to the Parcel Post Office nearest to destination. The necessary Customs entries will be passed free of cost to the addressees of parcels received.

Money Orders.

If payable in Papua (New Guinea), 9d. per £5—or fraction of £5—up to £20. If payable in the United Kingdom, other British Possessions, and Foreign Countries, 6d. for each pound or fraction of a pound.

Applications for money orders must be in writing, and must contain the full information necessary to insure payment of the proper person. The Christian names at full length must be furnished if possible, not merely the initials. The usual designation of a corporation, company, society, firm, official title, etc., will suffice as remitter or payee. The name of the State, or Country, in addition to the town where payment is desired, must be stated, as towns of the same name exist in different parts of the world, such as Bristol, Croydon, Campbelltown, Gladstone, Ipswich, Maitland, Maryborough, Newcastle, Perth, Richmond, Queenstown, Wellington, etc. The address of the remitter must also be furnished in order that he may be communicated with if necessary. Forms of application may be obtained at any money order office.

No single order may be issued for more than £40. For maximum amounts, for which single money orders may be issued, see Postal Guide. Two or more orders may be obtained when it is desired to remit larger amounts. No order may contain a fraction of a penny.

Postal Notes.

Postal Notes may be obtained at the Chief Money Order Office, Monday to Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Saturday, 9 a.m. to noon. At the Stamps Sales Office, and General Post Office in each State, during office hours when the Money Order Office is closed. At most post offices in the Commonwealth, during the hours they are open for the sale of stamps.

They shall be payable at all postal note offices, during the hours the latter are open for the transaction of any business.

The denominations of postal notes issued, and the commission or poundage charged thereon shall be as follow:—

Denomination	Commission or Poundage.	Denomination	Commission or Poundage
1s. 3d.	4s. 6d. 1d.
1s. 6d. 3d.	5s. 1½d.
2s. 3d.	7s. 6d. 2d.
2s. 6d. 1d.	10s. 3d.
3s. 1d.	10s. 6d. 3d.
3s. 6d. 1d.	15s. 3d.
4s. 1d.	20s. 3d.

The value of the notes have been so arranged that any sum of shillings and sixpences up to £1 can be remitted by not more than two of these notes.

Broken amounts not exceeding 5d. (but no fractions of a penny) may be added by affixing unobliterated and unperforated postage stamps of the State of issue to the face of a note, when the value of the notes and stamps together will be paid.

The name of the person to whom it is desired payment shall be made may be inserted in the space provided for that purpose in which case the note must be received by such person, and if it be presented for payment by any other person he must also receipt the note. The name of a money order or postal note office at which it is desired payment shall be made may be inserted, when (except as mentioned below) the postal note shall be payable at that office only.

A postal note may be crossed (like a cheque), when it shall be paid only through a bank. A note so crossed may be paid at any money order or postal note office in the Commonwealth, notwithstanding that the name of an office other than that at which it is presented has been inserted. Notes so crossed must, besides being signed by the payee, be presented by a bank official and bear an impression of the bank's stamp.

If the spaces for name of payee and paying office be not filled up, or if the note be made payable to "Bearer," the value thereof may be paid at any money order or postal note office in the Commonwealth, on the person by whom it is presented duly receipting the same.

After a postal note has been paid, by whomsoever presented, the Postmaster-General shall not be liable for any further claim.

After the expiration of six months from the last day of the month of issue, a postal note shall be cashed only at the General Post Office of the State of issue and on payment of a commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, for each period of six months, or portion thereof, beyond the first six months from month of issue; the amount of such commission must be affixed in unobliterated and unperforated postage stamps of the State to the face of the note. A postal note presented for payment after six months from the month of issue shall not be paid until reference has been made to the Chief Money Order Office of the State of issue.

If a postal note contain any alteration or erasure, or be cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

No stamp duty is charged on any postal note issued or paid within the Commonwealth.

At Brisbane Head Office from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturdays 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. At most other offices from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and at the more important offices from 8 p.m. to 9 p.m., except Saturdays.

Prepaid telegrams may be dropped into the box provided at each telegraph station for that purpose, at any time when the office is closed, and shall be transmitted when business is resumed. Such telegrams, with full fee, must be enclosed in sealed envelopes. If the full amount payable for the transmission of a telegram be not enclosed the latter shall be forwarded to its destination, but the addressee shall be required to pay, before delivery, the amount short-paid, together with the cost of the necessary instructions to the delivering office to collect the amount of deficiency.

Scale of Charges.

NEW CALEDONIA.—Between all stations in Queensland and all stations in New Caledonia—Ordinary: For each word, 9d. Press: For each word, 4½d. Addresses and signatures counted.

Double the prescribed rates shall be charged on telegrams (Press telegrams excepted) tendered for transmission on Sunday, Christmas Day, and Good Friday; and on other days between 8 p.m. and 9 a.m. local time, for transmission to offices where business is transacted during those hours.

Telegrams tendered for transmission must be written in a legible manner, in plain language, and when practicable on the proper form, and the address must contain all information necessary to avoid delay and insure delivery. The signature of the sender need not be transmitted, or a telegram may have an abbreviated signature known to the receiver, but the correct signature of the sender must appear on the back of each telegram as a guarantee of its authenticity, and as subscribing to the conditions under which it is transmitted. In the text amounts or numbers must be written in words only.

The charges must be prepaid by means of postage stamps, which may be obtained at any Post or Telegraph or Telephone Office. The public must affix the stamps to the telegram forms, and the officer to whom the telegrams are handed for transmission must cancel the stamps in the presence of the person from whom such telegrams are received.

Books of "unstamped" telegram forms may be obtained, on giving timely notice, at any Telegraph or Telephone Office at a cost of 1s. per book of 100 forms.

Words which are habitually written as one word or coupled by hyphens shall be counted as one word, and those which are written without any hyphen, as two or three, as the case may be. Thus, O'Neil and O'Connell must be counted as one word; King of the Ring (name of racehorse) four words; Sir Joshua (name of racehorse) two words; City of Adelaide (name of ship) three words.

The prefix "St." must, however, be reckoned as part of a word, thus St. Kilda, St. James, St. Arnaud, shall be counted as one word each.

A multiple telegram may be addressed, either to several persons in the same locality or in different localities, but served by the same telegraph office, or to the same person at several addresses in the same locality, and shall be charged for as a single telegram with a further charge of 5d. for each 100 words or fraction of 100 words contained in each copy after the first.

Telegrams marked "Collect," addressed to places within the Commonwealth, may be accepted only when the sender is known to the officer in charge, and signs an undertaking on a printed form provided for the purpose, that in the event of the addressee refusing to pay the charges for the telegram, he or she will be responsible for the payment of the amount, and the cost of the telegram of advice of the non-payment by the addressee. The word "Collect" must appear in the preamble of the telegram, and be charged for.

The cost of a reply may be prepaid, and a reply-form shall then be delivered to the addressee, who shall be at liberty to send a telegram of the value prepaid, from any telegraph office within the State. A reply-form need not necessarily be used for a reply, but may be used to prepay or partly prepay any single telegram for transmission to any place within the Commonwealth, within three months from the date of issue.

Telegrams posted at a post office (which is not a telegraph or telephone office), or in a posting receptacle, shall be forwarded by first mail to the nearest telegraph or telephone office, and transmitted thence by telegraph or telephone to destination, provided the form on which the telegram is written bears unobliterated postage stamps, or is accompanied by cash, sufficient to defray the cost of such transmission, and that it be enclosed in an envelope (on which postage need not be paid) indorsed "Telegram only," addressed to the officer in charge at the nearest telegraph or telephone office. If the full amount payable for the transmission of the telegram be not enclosed, the latter shall be forwarded to its destination, but the addressee shall be required to pay, before delivery, the amount short-paid, together with the cost of the necessary instructions to the delivering office to collect the amount of deficiency.

Urgent telegrams for transmission to places within the Commonwealth, shall be accepted from the public on payment of double the ordinary fee. Such telegrams will be transmitted and delivered in preference to any other telegram. "Urgent" forms and envelopes must be used for "Urgent" telegrams.

When the sender of an urgent telegram prepays a reply, the officer accepting the telegram must ascertain if the reply is also to be treated as urgent or as an ordinary telegram, and the fact, as the case may be, must be stated in the preamble of the telegram, thus:—"Reply paid, urgent rate," or "Reply paid, ordinary rate." These words must be paid for by the sender of the telegram.

Telegrams shall be delivered, free of charge, within a radius of 3 miles from a general post office, and within a radius of 1 mile from any other office where a delivery of telegrams is made. Telegrams for addresses beyond the abovementioned radii, but within a radius of 3½ miles from a general post office, or within a radius of 1½ miles from any other office of destination to which a messenger is attached, shall be delivered on payment of a charge of threepence each. If natural obstacles or other difficulties intervene, the Department shall not undertake delivery. Beyond the 3½-mile and 1½-mile radii delivery expenses shall be charged. For telegrams to be delivered on shipboard a charge for post hire, if necessary, may be made.

No receipts from the addressees need be taken upon the delivery of telegrams originating in and delivered within the Commonwealth. Should it be necessary to obtain evidence of the delivery of a telegram, a receipt therefor, by telegram, may be ordered at the time such telegram is lodged for transmission, and shall be telegraphed back to the sender upon payment of ordinary telegraph charges, or, if desired, sent by post card on payment of 1d.

Senders of telegrams must invariably give every information they can to the officers of the Department that will facilitate delivery; if the sender omit to do so it is at his own risk. When it is found that the place to which a telegram is to be delivered is beyond the prescribed radius from the office and no portage has been guaranteed or paid, the telegram may be posted from the office of receipt.

Where no messengers are employed telegrams remain at the office until called for. Arrangements have been made in many cases for special delivery, at fixed rates, of telegrams for places beyond the limits of free delivery.

Notices of removal and instructions in writing, respecting the delivery of telegrams at hours when the addressee's place of business is closed shall be registered free of charge. If no such instructions have been registered, and any additional service is performed in delivering a telegram at a second address in the same town, an extra charge of 6d. shall be made.

Ordinary telegrams take precedence of press telegrams between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6.30 p.m., and all telegrams received at any one time addressed to the proprietor, publisher, or agent of a newspaper for transmission at press rates between the hours named may be restricted to 500 words.

Subscribers to telephone exchanges may transmit by telephone to any telegraph office which may be connected with a telephone exchange messages intended to be further transmitted from the telegraph office to the respective destinations of such messages as telegrams; provided they pay the usual cost of such telegrams in addition to the rates for transmission through the telephone.

Any person employed in a telegraph office may refuse to receive or transmit a telegram containing blasphemous, indecent, obscene, offensive, or scandalous matter in its contents, address, or signature.

Arrangements may be made to keep any official office open for the transmission of telegrams after the ordinary business hours, upon notice being given to the officer in charge, at least one hour before the ordinary time of closing, and upon payment of a deposit of 2s. 6d. for the first hour or portion thereof and 1s. 6d. for every subsequent hour, or portion thereof, during which it is desired the office shall be kept open. All telegrams transmitted must be paid for at the usual rates.

REDIRECTION.—A telegram may, on the written request of the addressee or his agent, be redirected and retransmitted from one office to another within the Commonwealth; such telegrams shall, on retransmission, be charged the full rate, which must be paid before delivery.

REPETITION OF TELEGRAMS.—In order to provide against mistakes in the transmission and delivery of telegrams, any telegram may be repeated by being retransmitted from the office of delivery to the sender on payment by the latter, at the time of lodgment, of 50 per cent. in addition to the ordinary rate. In such telegrams the word "repeat" must appear in the preamble of the telegrams and be charged for.

RECTIFICATION OF TELEGRAMS.—The receiver of a telegram may have the whole or part of it repeated on payment of the cost of the telegram demanding the repetition and of the reply to the same. The sender may also have the whole or any portion of his message repeated on payment of the cost of the telegram he forwards and of the reply.

The money paid for the repetition shall be refunded should such repetition show that the error was made in the original telegram, but shall be retained should no error have been made; provided, however, that when some words have been correctly, and some incorrectly, reproduced in the first telegram, the charge for the request for repetition, and half the cost of the reply shall be refunded. No refund shall be made for words written in a doubtful manner, nor shall any claim be entertained for refund of cost of consequential telegram—that is, private telegrams which the addressee or sender causes to be sent in connection with any supposed error in a telegram.

PASSENGERS.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Children under five years of age will be permitted to travel free. Children of five years of age and upwards, but under fourteen years of age, will be permitted to travel at half the full fares.

PASSENGERS NOT TO TRAVEL WITHOUT TICKETS OR PASSES.

Any person who travels by railway unless he is provided with—

- A proper ticket issued by an officer or duly authorised agent of the Commissioner; or
- A free railway pass issued by an officer of the Commissioner duly authorised in that behalf; shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £10.

AVAILABILITY OF SINGLE TICKETS.

Single tickets for distances of 50 miles and under are available only for the date on which the tickets are issued.

Single tickets for distances over 50 miles and under 150 miles are available for seven days after date of issue, and for distances 150 miles and over fourteen days; but in either case the journey must be commenced on the date of issue.

AVAILABILITY OF RETURN TICKETS.

Return tickets will be issued between all railway stations, and shall be available as follows:—10 miles and under, day of issue only, except when no train is available for return, in which case they are available for the following day; 11 miles to 50 miles, 2 weeks, exclusive of the day of issue; 51 miles to 150 miles, 1 calendar month, exclusive of the day of issue; 151 miles to 300 miles, 3 calendar months, exclusive of the day of issue; over 300 miles, 6 calendar months, exclusive of the day of issue.

The forward journey must be commenced on the date of issue and completed within the period for which a single ticket is available.

Return tickets from South Brisbane, and intermediate stations to Rocklea inclusive, to Southport, and from Mount Morgan to Tanby, are available for one calendar month.

Return tickets to any of the following watering places from stations under 11 miles distant, viz.:—Wynnum, Wynnum South, Manly, Birkdale, Wellington Point, Ormiston, West Cleveland and Cleveland, Southport, Boonunga, Currumbin, Coolangatta, Tweed Heads, Nudgee, Sandgate, Pialba, or Emu Park shall be available for return for one week.

BREAK OF JOURNEY.

Passengers holding return (not excursion) tickets for any distance may be allowed to break their journey at any station, provided the journey is completed within the period for which the tickets are available. But the forward journey of return tickets must be commenced on date of issue, and completed within the period for which a single ticket is available, with the exception that 7 days will be allowed to complete the forward journey of return tickets between Cairns and Mareeba.

Any passenger desirous of breaking his journey must deposit his ticket (for which a receipt will be given if required) with the station-master at each station where the journey is broken, the ticket being returned to him on resuming his journey.

Passengers holding excursion tickets to places distant 200 miles and over may break the forward journey, provided they travel not less than 100 miles on the day of issue. The forward journey must, however, be completed within the period for which a single ticket is available. In all other cases, passengers holding excursion tickets are not allowed to break their forward journey unless it is impossible to complete it on the day the tickets are issued, in which case they must proceed by the first available train thereafter; or, to avoid a break, they may be permitted to obtain and use their tickets on the day preceding the day appointed for their issue. The return journey, however, may be broken as stated above.

EXCESSING PASSENGERS, CHANGE OF CLASS, RETURN TICKETS, &c.

This Regulation also applies to interstate tickets.

Horse-gear carried in horse-boxes will be at the owner's risk.

The Commissioner will not be responsible for any loss of, or damage whatsoever to, horses whilst upon railway premises or wagons, unless such loss or damage has been occasioned by neglect on the part of railway employees, but under no circumstances will the Commissioner be liable to pay any claim for the loss of or damage to any horse, in excess of £25.

CASH ON DELIVERY PARCEL SYSTEM

The Department undertakes to forward booked parcels to approved railway stations and gates on the Queensland Railways, and collect the money value of the contents as declared by the sender.

For the present, and until the system has had a fair trial, it will be confined to parcels sent from Brisbane, Roma Street, Brunswick Street, Gympie, Maryborough, Bundaberg, Rockhampton (Stanley Street and Archer Park) Emerald, South Brisbane, Ipswich, Toowoomba, Warwick, Dalby, Roma, Charleville, Mackay, Townsville, Charters Towers, Cairns, and Normanton; but the Commissioner's intention is to apply it generally, if successful.

The system will be designated "Cash on Delivery" Parcels.

Firms wishing to forward a C.O.D. parcel must consign the parcel in the ordinary way, pay the freight (booked) charges and a commission at the rate of 4d. in the £ (minimum charge, 4d.) on the declared value of the contents, which declaration must be clearly and fully written on the consignment note. Senders must also state on the consignment note the date they wish the parcel returned in the event of its being unclaimed. A special label provided for the purpose must be pasted by the sender on each parcel, setting forth the name of the sender, the sending station, the name of the consignee and destination, and the date to be returned if unclaimed. A supply of these labels may be obtained on application at stations.

The Commissioner will not be liable for loss of or injury to, a C.O.D. parcel over £10 in value, unless the value has been declared, and the special risk rates, provided in clause 69 of the Coaching Classification, have been paid.

Should a C.O.D. parcel be not claimed by the consignee within the time specified by the sender on the consignment note, it will be returned to the sending station free of charge.

C.O.D. parcels will be stored free for a period of fourteen days, after which the usual cloak-room charges will be made. Should a parcel be returned unclaimed, no storage charges will be enforced.

Freight and commission on C.O.D. parcels forwarded by firms or persons who have ledger accounts with the Department may be charged to such accounts.

A monthly settlement will be made by the Department with senders of the amounts collected from consignees under this arrangement.

"C.O.D." denotes stations to which parcels can be sent "Cash on Delivery."

"G." denotes station to which parcels cannot be sent "C.O.D.," but nearest station is given after the mileage shewn opposite.

For instance: Arabella is not a "C.O.D." station, but if parcel is booked to Charleville, same can be forwarded to Arabella on receipt of cash. Mileage from Brisbane only.

Grooms or jockeys accompanying racehorses and travelling in horse-boxes will be charged second-class fares.

CONVEYANCE OF PARCELS BY MAIL COACHES.

It has been agreed between the Postal and Railway Departments that when parcels intended for delivery at townships, etc., beyond the railway line are conveyed as far as they can be by rail, they may be sent to the nearest postmaster, in the vehicle conveying the mails, to be forwarded through parcel post, and the postage collected on delivery to consignee. The Postal Department will not insist on prepayment of the postage on parcels received from the railway, but will not pay any railway charge.

This regulation does not apply to parcels exceeding 11lb. in weight or to parcels which, on account of their size or contents, the postmaster must, in accordance with the parcel post regulations, refuse to accept.

STAMPED PARCELS.

The following are the regulations under which stamped parcels are carried on all Government railways within the State :—

SPECIAL REGULATIONS FOR ISSUE OF ADHESIVE PARCELS STAMPS.

- (A) Adhesive parcel stamps, similar to postage stamps, will be issued at railway stations and gates where officials are in charge.
- (B) When a package such as fish, butter, eggs, milk, cream, fresh meat, &c., &c., will not allow a stamp to properly adhere, a label must be secured to the package, on which the stamp can be properly affixed.
- (C) When the stamps affixed are not of the full value for the weight or distance according to table of rates, and the sender omits or refuses to affix the additional stamps necessary, the stamp may either be cancelled and the parcel forwarded and surcharged at destination, or the Commissioner may refuse to forward the same.
- (D) All stamped parcels except stamped newspaper parcels must be booked.

All parcels must, to admit of their being booked, be at stations fifteen minutes before the advertised time of departure of the train by which they are required to be forwarded. The Commissioner will not be liable for the loss of any parcel which is not booked.

When two or more parcels are consigned to the same person the parcels rate will be charged on each separate parcel, except in the case of newspapers, fish, fruit, ice, fresh meat, bread, butter in boxes, and vegetables, which will be charged as for the gross weight, provided always that when the weight thereof exceeds 1 cwt. the charge for each succeeding hundredweight or part thereof shall not be in excess of the rate for the first hundredweight.

Packed parcels—i.e., parcels addressed to separate consignees, and packed in hampers, crates, bags, cases or other packages—will be charged quadruple rates, and the onus of proving that the parcels are not packed will rest with consignees or consignors.

Parcels conveyed by passenger trains shall, if not removed from the Parcels Office on arrival, be subjected to the same charges for storage as if deposited in a cloak-room.

The Commissioner will not be liable for the loss of or injury to any parcel when the value exceeds £10, unless at the time of delivery thereof at the station for the purpose of being carried, the value and contents of the parcel have been declared by the person delivering the same, and a special risk rate has been paid to and accepted by the officer in charge.

The following are the special risk rates which are payable in addition to the carriage rates :—

	Per cent. on declared value above £10.	Minimum Charge.

Under 100 miles ..	8 4	1 0
100 to 200 miles ..	12 6	1 6
201 to 300 miles ..	16 8	2 0

ALLORA BRANCH RATES.

Parcels carried over Allora Branch Railway will be charged as follows :—10 lb. and under, 3d. each ; 11 lb. and over, 6d. each, in addition to the classification rates to or from Hendon, provided the through mileage charge is not higher.

RATES FOR BIRDS IN CAGES, FURNITURE, SEWING-MACHINES, ETC.

NEWSPAPERS, LIBRARY BOOKS, PERISHABLE ARTICLES, ETC.

Parcels of newspapers conveyed within the State will be charged at half parcels rates, but not more in any case than 1d. per lb., irrespective of distance. Minimum charge, 1d. per parcel. Single newspapers properly addressed shall be charged one half-penny each, irrespective of distance.

Packages of ice will be carried at owner's risk only, and will be charged quarter parcels' rates. Minimum charge, 3d. When more than 1 cwt. is forwarded, the charge for the weight in excess must not exceed pro rata the charge for the first cwt.

Packages of game, fresh meat, corned beef, butchers' small goods (cooked sausages, etc.), fresh fruit, butter, vegetables, cakes and pastry, and bread will be carried at owner's risk only, at half parcel rates. Minimum charge, 3d.

The carriage of all perishable articles except from gates must be prepaid or full parcel rates will be charged.

Books will be conveyed to and from Circulating Libraries or School of Arts, also packages of pianola music to and from H. M. AGENCIES IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL TOWNS IN QUEENSLAND.

This Company was incorporated by Special Act of Parliament in 1888 solely for the purpose of acting in the capacities and of performing the duties undermentioned. AS IT TAKES NO OTHER BUSINESS WHATEVER, it is not only free from any element of speculation, but provides for the public a permanent and guaranteed system of skilled management under the direct supervision of the Supreme Court. Under the Company's Special Act, it may be appointed to undertake any of the following duties:—Executor, Administrator, or Trustee under Wills, Marriage, or other Settlements; Attorney or Agent in the management or realisation of Estates; Guardian of the Person and the Estate of any Infant; Liquidator or Official Liquidator of any Company; Trustee in Insolvency; or Committee in Lunacy.

In compliance with the Company's Act, the sum of £20,000 is invested in the name of the State Treasurer as security for the faithful performance of duties entrusted to the Company. THE CHARGES are less than the Court usually allows to private executors. Pamphlets obtainable on application.

P. A. BLUNDELL, Manager.

A WILL should be made in the plainest language possible; it must be written with ink on paper or parchment, and must be signed at the foot or end thereof by the testator (the person who makes the will) or some other person, in his presence, and by his direction, and the testator must make or acknowledge such signature in the presence of two or more witnesses, who must be present at the same time and attest and subscribe the will in the testator's presence. A full attestation clause is given in the forms below, and its use in all cases will probably save a lot of trouble.

The witnesses should not be in any way beneficially interested in the will, as any beneficial gift, legacy or appointment by the will to an attesting witness, or to the husband or wife of an attesting witness (except a charge for payment of debts) is void. An executor or trustee appointed by a will may, however, act as an attesting witness.

A witness need not know the contents of the will, as the will may be so folded that the signature and Attestation Clause alone may be seen.

On the question of whom to appoint executors or trustees, attention is directed to the advantages of appointing a permanent institution like Queensland Trustees Limited, whose advertisement appears on the previous page.

FORMS OF WILLS.

I.—WILL GIVING TO ONE ABSOLUTELY ALL THE TESTATOR'S REAL AND PERSONAL ESTATE.

I, A.B., of &c. (testator's name, residence, and quality), hereby REVOKE all testamentary writings heretofore executed by me, and declare this to be my last will made and executed on the _____ day of _____ 19____ I DEVISE and BEQUEATH all my real and personal estate unto (devisee's name, residence, and quality) absolutely. AND I APPOINT the said (name) sole executor of this my will. IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand.

(Testator's signature).

Signed by A.B., of &c., as his last will, in the presence of us present at the same time, who, at at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as attesting witnesses.

(Names and addresses of two witnesses).

II.—WILL OF A MARRIED MAN GIVING THE INCOME OF HIS PROPERTY TO HIS WIFE; SUBJECT THERETO, THE CAPITAL EQUALLY AMONG HIS CHILDREN, THE CHILDREN OF A DECEASED CHILD TAKING THEIR PARENT'S SHARE.

THIS IS THE LAST WILL of me (testator's name, residence, and quality). I REVOKE all testamentary instruments heretofore executed by me, and I APPOINT _____ and _____ [or Queensland Trustees Limited, hereinafter called

"my trustees," executors and trustees of this my will. I BEQUEATH to my wife (name) all the household furniture, plate, linen, china, glass, books, pictures, prints, provisions, and other household effects belonging to me at the time of my death, and a legacy of £....., to be paid to her out of the first moneys coming to the hands of my executors. And as to all the rest of my estate and effects, both real and personal, I devise and bequeath the same unto and to the use of my trustees UPON TRUST to sell, call in and convert into money my real and residuary personal estate. And UPON FURTHER TRUST to invest the money arising from the sale calling in and conversion thereof in the names or name of the trustees or trustee for the time being of this my will; And to pay the annual income of such investments to my wife during her life. And from and after her death as to the capital and income of the same investments UPON TRUST for my children in equal shares, the respective shares of such children to be absolutely vested on my death. Provided that if any child of mine shall die in my lifetime, leaving issue, who shall survive me, and who being male shall attain the age of twenty-one years, or being female shall attain that age, or marry under that age, such issue shall take, and if more than one, equally between them, the share which their, his, or her parent would have taken of and in any residuary estate if such parent had lived to attain a vested interest. I DECLARE that the trustees or trustee for the time being of this my will shall have a discretionary power to postpone for such period as to them or him shall seem expedient the sale calling in or conversion of any parts of my real or personal estate, but the unsold real estate and the outstanding personal estate shall be subject to the trusts hereinbefore contained concerning the investments aforesaid, and the rents and yearly produce thereof shall be deemed annual income for the purposes of such trusts, and the unsold real estate shall be deemed to be converted as from the time of my death, and be transmissible as personal estate accordingly. I DECLARE that if at any time or times during the widowhood of my wife the annual income of my estate shall be less than £....., it shall be lawful for the trustees or trustee for the time being of this my will to raise out of the capital thereof and pay to my widow such a sum as will make her income up to £..... a year. I DECLARE that so long as my wife lives and continues unmarried the power of appointing new trustees conferred by statute shall be exercisable by her. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this.....day of.....1900.

(Testator's signature).

Signed by the testator, the said (testator's name), as his last will in the presence of us present at the same time, who at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as attesting witnesses.

(Names and addresses of two witnesses)

NOTE.—Obliterations and alterations of any sort in the will ought, if possible, to be avoided; when they have to be made, each one of them must be signed or initialled by the testator and witnessed on the margin, or as near to the alteration as possible.

It is also advisable for both the testator and the witnesses to subscribe their names at the foot of every sheet, where the will contains more than one sheet of paper.

Marriage after making a will renders the will void, and necessitates another being made.

N.B.—If the above forms are not adapted to your requirements, it will be prudent to secure professional assistance, and if this is not at hand, write to the manager of Queensland Trustees Limited, vide advertisement on previous page.

Atherton (and Carrington).—A township situated 21 miles from Mareeba, and the centre of a district rich in minerals and timber. Population of township, 600; of district, 1400. Atherton is the centre of an extensive tableland, 2466 feet above sea level, and is connected by a daily train service with Cairns. The climate is exceptional for North Queensland, owing to its high altitude, being mild in winter, with clear, fresh, moderate heat during summer. Its rainfall is very regular, averaging over 100 inches. The soil is a rich chocolate, both in the thinly timbered and scrub portions, and corn, potatoes, onions, oats, and a great variety of fruits grow to perfection. Other crops have not yet been tried, and dairying is in its infancy. The splendid forests of cedar and other timbers, with the maize crops, provide the principal revenues of the town at present, while the rich mineral districts around it form its chief market for other produce.
